Section B: Answers to in-text questions – CH12

Questions for consideration

1. Discuss whether an accountant who is not a member of the SA Institute of Chartered Accountants can claim to be a 'professional'.
2. Explain the differences between the roles of the South African Institute of Chartered Accountants and the Independent Regulatory Board for Auditors, and explain the similarities and differences in the study paths to become members of these bodies.
3. Discuss the validity of the following statement: 'Because audit fees are paid by the client company, rather than by the shareholders or other providers of finance, the external auditor has a professional duty to act at all times in the best interest of the client company.'
4. Respond to the following comment made by an economics student: 'There is no need to restrict entry to the auditing profession – in a free market system, the market should be free to decide who should render the external audit service.'
