

Paper Example. Poetry Research Essay

Poems are essential and can educate people about various issues in life. Besides, poets have a way of sending their message humorously. Poems improve how people perceive things by helping them to think deeply about life. Nonetheless, not all people have the knowledge to read and interpret poetry. Therefore, comparing two poetic works can help an individual to understand the various techniques that are used in poetry. The poem To the Virgins to Make Much of Time by Robert Herrick and the poem To His Coy Mistress by Andrew Marvell can be analyzed to show how poets use poetic techniques to educate people.

Similarities

Both poems are carpe diems and can be of considerable significance to the readers. According to Shelley (2018), poetry can reveal the beauty in the world and poets use it as a tool of expressing beauty. In this case, both poets have used themes to send their message to the readers. For instance, Herrick has focused on the issue of love in his poem to educate people on the need to love one another, and the significance of marrying while love and flesh are still young. On the other hand, Marvell has focused on love by showing the need to enjoy the time we now have and love each other.

The impact of poetry can be felt far and wide since it is influential. Therefore, the theme of love can be explored by many readers of these poems. For instance, the phrase by Marvell that talks about the wish to love ten years before the storm can reveal the theme of love in the poem. Herrick argues that gather your rose buds while you may. Thus, one can relate love with the rose buds and the need to express love to other people when one can. Additionally, Herrick encourages virgins to ensure that they engage in long-lasting commitments in marriage before they get old. Human beings are social beings, and from this nature, love sprouts almost impulsively. Consequently, many poets have used the theme of love to educate readers on various aspects associated with love.

As aforementioned, both poems are carpe diems. Consequently, the writers have primarily focused on time and the need for one to seize a moment since time is short. The importance of utilizing time comes out clearly in the poem To His Coy Mistress as the narrator uses past tense making it sound like he is regretting. "Had we but world enough, and time, This coyness, Lady, were no crime. We would sit down, and think which way To walk, and pass our long love's day" (Marvell line 1-4). In this case, Marvell shows that the mistress coyness would not be a crime, but the limited time is what made her coyness to be a crime. Therefore, one can learn that the narrator is lamenting the shortness of time in this life.

On the extreme, Herrick has focused on the need for an individual to utilize time. "Gather ye rose-buds while ye may" (Line 1). The phrase can also show the need to do things when one has time. Besides, rose-buds are always young and beautiful, which shows the need for individuals to utilize their time when energetic. Furthermore, roses gradually wither and lose their beauty. Thus, the poems have revealed that time is an essential factor in an individual's life and should be utilized. After reading the two novels, one can learn the bottom line is that there is no time for both the coy mistress and the virgins.
