Research Paper On Racial Profiling:

Racial Profiling Michael L. Birzer, 2012-11-14 Many racial minority communities claim profiling occurs frequently in their neighborhoods. Police authorities for the most part deny that they engage in racially biased police tactics. A handful of books have been published on the topic but they tend to offer only anecdotal reports offering little reliable insight. Few use a qualitative methodol.

Racial Profiling Deborah Kops, 2007 This book focuses on the debate surrounding racial profiling in the United States including a historical look at criminal profiles and U S government initiatives like Japanese American internment during WWII through to the modern anti terrorist age through scholarly opinions statistics and studies.

Racial Profiling and the Use of Suspect Classifications in Law Enforcement Policy United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on the Constitution, Civil Rights, and Civil Liberties, 2010.

Race, Ethnicity, and Policing Stephen K Rice, Michael D White, 2010-03-01 From Rodney King and driving while black to claims of targeting of undocumented Latino immigrants relationships surrounding race ethnicity and the police have faced great challenge. Race Ethnicity and Policing includes both classic pieces and original essays that provide the reader with a comprehensive even handed sense of the theoretical underpinnings methodological challenges and existing research necessary to understand the problems associated with racial and ethnic profiling and police bias. This path breaking volume affords a holistic approach to the topic guiding readers through the complexity of these issues making clear the ecological and political contexts that surround them and laying the groundwork for future discussions. The seminal and forward thinking twenty two essays clearly illustrate that equitable treatment of citizens across racial and ethnic groups by police is one of the most critical components of a successful democracy and that it is only when agents of social control are viewed as efficient effective and legitimate that citizens will comply with the laws that govern their society. The book includes an introduction by Robin S Engel and contributions from leading scholars including Jeffrey A Fagan James J Fyfe Bernard E Harcourt Delores Jones Brown Ramiro Martinez Jr Karen F Parker Alex R Piquero Tom R Tyler Jerome H Skolnick Ronald Weitzer and many others.

Ethnic and Racial Profiling in the OSCE Region United States. Congress. Commission on Security and Cooperation in Europe, 2014.

Racial Profiling Anthony Gennaro Vito, 2016-12-08 Racial Profiling Using Propensity Score Matching to Examine Focal Concerns Theory combines theory and propensity score matching to offer readers a better understanding of racial profiling through traffic stop data concerning the race and gender of the driver. The book examines the likelihood of a citation search or consent search for similarly situated African American and Caucasian drivers in general similarly situated African American and Caucasian male drivers and similarly situated African American and Caucasian female drivers. Whether and why police exercise racial profiling in their decisionmaking is one of the most hotly debated topics in criminal justice. In this work Anthony Vito uses Focal Concerns Theory to explain police officer decisionmaking in traffic stop outcomes via propensity score matching revealing the intersectional dynamics of racial profiling and gender bias by the Louisville Police.

Department The unique approach of looking at the Focal Concerns Theory components of blameworthiness protection of the community and practical constraints and consequences together with propensity score matching provides a theoretical lens for analysis and a model for future studies This book is an original and timely resource for researchers scholars practitioners and other stakeholders focusing on the problem of racial profiling in policing Snapshots of Research Richard D. Thug Criminology Adam Ellis, Olga Marques, Anthony Gunter, 2023-06-26 Thug Criminology combines the urgent and as yet silenced voices of former gang street involved peoples turned academics alongside their allies in order to challenge and disrupt mainstream and academic knowledge about urban youth gangs specifically and the streets more broadly The book questions how the streets and the racialized and marginalized urban communities who inhabit them are researched taught and subsequently politicized It looks at who gets to produce such knowledge who benefits from such knowledge and whose voices are privileged within dominant academic and public policy discourses Drawing on decolonizing methodologies the book seeks to give voice to scholars with lived experience of a street or gang life Adam Ellis Olga Marques and Anthony Gunter reclaim the terms thug and gang to reconstruct the narrative around street involved youth seeing them not as criminals but rather as survivors of historical oppression and trauma Challenging the colonial structure of criminology and other disciplines that focus on street crime Thug Criminology aims to disrupt and disentangle the knowledge that has been produced on gangs and urban violence

Issues for Debate in American Public Policy The CQ Researcher, 2017-03-20 This collection of non partisan reports written by award winning CQ Researcher journalists focuses on provocative current policy issues As an annual publication that comes together just months before it goes to press the volume is all new and as up to date as possible And because it s CQ Researcher the policy reports are expertly researched and written showing all sides of an issue Chapters follow a consistent organization exploring three issue questions then offering background current context and a look ahead and feature a pro con debate box All issues include a chronology bibliography photos charts and figures

Racism and Borders Jeff Shantz, 2010 While policies like SB 1070 Arizona s now infamous immigration legislation have raised issues of racial profiling and policing practices there have been few detailed analyses of broader practices of racialization and racism at borders more extensively Some works have focused specifically upon profiling without looking at varied processes of racialization In addition most studies of border controls have examined the US context while few have looked at racism and racialization and borders in multinational contexts as the current work does The work provides analyses of constructions of race and repressive border policies and examines critically larger policy questions in the context of neoliberal governance practices It can serve as a primary or supplementary text for university courses in Criminology Sociology Politics Geography Cultural Studies and International Affairs Beyond academia it provides a useful resource for civil liberties and human rights groups advocacy movements and community organizations supporting immigrants and refugees as well as those representing members of racialized non migrant communities in diverse contexts The Editor s introduction examines the historical and recent contexts of racial profiling and resistance to profiling especially since 9 11 and the war on terror Chapters contributed by scholars from a diversity of backgrounds perspectives and institutions explore the problem of the Other the power and means of defining territory gender the treatment of indigenous peoples and the active and passive ways in which those in the dominant group step over obliterate abuse and turn a blind eye to all other groups In contrast Graciela Susana Boruszko discusses the concept of hospitality calling upon each of us to make room for the other and asserting that divergent perspectives do not call for reconciliation but to remain standing at ease side by side while we disagree on that issue It is a work that will provide a rich resource for those interested in issues of border controls and migration beyond the din of mainstream media discussions It will be of value to academics and researchers on border and migration issues as well as community advocates dealing with the issues everyday on the front lines Encyclopedia
