Handbook of East Asian Entrepreneurship Tony Fu-Lai Yu, Ho-Don Yan, 2014-10-03. With the shift of the global economic gravity toward emerging economies and the roaring economic growth of the past three decades in China, East Asian catching up growth strategies have profound implications for latecomer economies. While there are many handbooks on entrepreneurship in general, there is no reference on East Asian entrepreneurship. This is the first of its kind in the market. The volume provides a useful reference for those who want to know East Asian entrepreneurship and business systems. It also provides many excellent cases and illustrations on the growth of entrepreneurial firms and the rise of branded products in East Asia. Policy makers or scholars who are interested in entrepreneurship, small and medium-sized enterprises, Asian business systems, international business, innovation, and technology management, economic development, strategic management, and East Asian studies would benefit from this volume. The volume contains two parts. The first part is the key concepts associated with entrepreneurship and East Asian firm growth and transformation. The second part presents cases of entrepreneurial firms and their founders in East Asia, including Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong, and China. With the handbook, scholars, students, and policy makers can grab some basic ideas how entrepreneurs and firms in East Asia compete and survive in the world market and understand why and how East Asia economies can emerge as one of the most dynamic regions in the world. Part I: concepts relating to Entrepreneurship, Guanxi, Catching up strategies, Types of entrepreneurship, Business System, Strategic Management, Leadership. Part II: cases cover variedly from manufacturing to services industries and specifically including traditional and newly corporations ranging from toys, convenient stores, fast fashion, high tech, to catering and service. Written by experts in their respective areas, Handbook of East Asia entrepreneurship is an excellent review of theories, policies, and empirical evidences on important topics in Entrepreneurship in East Asian economic development. The book is both a superb teaching tool and a valuable handbook in development economics.

Strategic Management and Innovation Strategies Takabumi Hayashi, Yoshikazu Sakamoto, 2025-09-26. This book uses case studies to analyze how companies have implemented business strategies to adapt from analogue to digital, from hardware based to software based, and from incremental to radical innovation in the new generation competition. Through this analysis, the distinctive features and challenges of these companies are examined from the perspective of innovation strategy focusing on dynamic capabilities of the companies A major objective of this monograph is to identify the key determinants that make up the dynamic capabilities of the companies in international competitive marketplaces In other words the analytical focus is on clarifying the consistency and differences between the representative dynamic capability theory and the innovation strategies of companies examined in this study It also presents management strategies from the perspective of organizational transformation when confronting companies with cost competitive and innovative resources The common feature of the studied companies is that entrepreneurial managers and leaders have played the critical roles in creating new business units with organizational transformation The book demonstrates the differences in innovation strategies from those of typical companies previously analyzed This book is highly recommended not only to academicians but to businesspeople who seek an in depth and up to date overview of unique innovation strategies of companies that are leaders in global markets
