The image shows a screenshot of a word processing document titled "Works Cited". The document contains a list of references. Annotations with red arrows and circles highlight specific formatting rules:

- Hanging indent is set: Points to the first line of the first entry, which is indented from the left margin.
- centered (with "Works Cited" circled): Points to the title of the page, which is centered.
- Page number is in consecutive order after the last page of text: Points to the page number "1" in the top right corner.
- Entries are in alphabetical order by author's last name: Points to the list of entries, which are ordered by the author's last name (Benner, Dorsey, Heubly, Looney, Watterson).
- If no author, use the first letter of the article title: Points to the entry by Looney, which starts with the article title "Cash Check, or Charge?".
- Consult the MLA Style Manual for more specifics: Points to the entry by Looney.
- Return only after an entry is completed. This allows the hanging indent to work in the entry: Points to the end of each entry, indicating that the return key is pressed after the entire entry is typed.

The International Student's Guide to

Writing a Research Paper Janine Carlock, Maeve Eberhardt, Jaime Horst, Peter Kolenich, 2017-06-13 The International Student's Guide to Writing a Research Paper is a reference text for undergraduate students and those in ESL or bridge courses who are writing a research paper for the first time This book is partly an update of Writing a Research Paper by Lionel Menasche 1998 and partly a companion to The ESL Writer's Handbook Each section of the book includes a discrete task called a Building Block which requires students to apply the skills learned toward the development of their own paper This step by step approach allows students to construct knowledge as they become more familiar with the process making writing a research paper a less intimidating task Special features This guide uses simple direct language for those for whom writing a research paper is new Most example writing is from international students in an ESL program or first year writing class including two sample papers one in APA and one in MLA A section on responding to instructor feedback to provide students with the tools to read and understand comments and use them to improve the first draft A subsection dedicated to constructing clear and cohesive paragraphs and sentences The guide includes citation and style examples in MLA 8th edition

Research Methodology- Integration Of Principles & Methods Dr. Pratima Mishra, Dr. Amar Jagannath Wanjari, Dr. Sharad Gangele, Dr. Anviti Rawat, Discussions on research are commonplace in today's society both within and outside of universities Each year several studies are started and completed However the research process a crucial aspect of every study is often overlooked As a consequence many pieces of study especially in the social sciences resort to excessive wordiness and citations As a result a lot of studies wind up being pointless In the context of strategy and growth it is worth noting that the quality not the quantity of research is what really matters The quality of study can only be improved if individuals involved in the research give careful consideration to developing and consistently using an acceptable technique throughout Research strategies are often consistent regardless of whether or not the technique changes from issue to problem With this in mind this book has two distinct goals i to assist researchers of all stripes in crafting a methodology that is well suited to their studies and ii to familiarize them with the art of employing a variety of research methods and techniques The publication of this book is a small but sincere attempt to contribute to accomplishment of exploratory as well as result oriented research studies
