Hip-Hop-Perations Khalil Amani, 2000-10-31 What up Just like to welcome you to this class here at W F U I am Dr Horatio Honeycutt As you all know a class in multicultural studies is required of all entering freshmen so I'm happy that you've chosen this course to fulfill that requirement I know that you will find this class stimulating exciting and truly challenging So welcome again I'm passing out a syllabus for your perusal This semester you will get acquainted with Black people in the urban ghetto of this city We will be going on a field trip into the heart of the hood to get a firsthand look at how the language is spoken But I must warn you before we get to that point you must do a complete overhaul of your perception of Black people We will have to become as black as we can be as not to stand out and as they say in the hood get our asses bumrushed In other words we don't want to draw too much attention to ourselves and cause the indigenous population to pummel our bodies into mutilated pieces of DNA But not to worry I've already established communication with some of the more violent elements in the community See You've already learned your first black word bumrush It means to suddenly bombard without warning to attack Put it in your vocabulary you'll need it Kahlil Amani Jive 101 Ebonics 1619 Khalil Amani offers his take on Black America through both poetry and prose in Hip Hop Operations Amani is a graduate of San Diego
