Deaf Education Beyond the Western World Harry Knoors, Maria Brons, Marc Marschark, 2019-01-16 If teachers want to educate deaf learners effectively they have to apply evidence informed methods and didactics with the needs of individual deaf students in mind Education in general and education for deaf learners in particular is situated in broader societal contexts where what works within the Western world may be quite different from what works beyond the Western world By exploring practice based and research based evidence about deaf education in countries that largely have been left out of the international discussion thus far this volume encourages more researchers in more countries to continue investigating the learning environment of deaf learners based on the premise of leaving no one behind Featuring chapters centering on 19 countries from Africa Asia Latin America and Central and Eastern Europe the volume offers a picture of deaf education from the perspectives of local scholars and teachers who demonstrate best practices and challenges within their respective regional contexts This volume addresses the notion of learning through the exchange of knowledge outlines the commonalities and differences between practices and policies in educating deaf and hard of hearing learners and looks ahead to the prospects for the future development of deaf education research in the context of recently adopted international legal frameworks Stimulating academic exchange regionally and globally among scholars and teachers who are fascinated by and invested in deaf education this volume strengthens the foundation for further improvement of education for deaf children all around the world

Cohabitation among Students in Higher-Learning Institutions in Tanzania Elia Shabani Mligo, Jael Omanga Otieno, 2018-02-28 Colleges and universities have been meeting places of students for the sake of studies all over the world As students transcend from secondary level education to tertiary level the degree of freedom increases they become free to live the style of life they choose This freedom is mainly caused by their advance in age from childhood to youth ages Cohabitation is one of the styles of life that students in most higher learning institutions choose to live However cohabitation is not the style of life that emerges in the recent time In the industrialized world for example cohabitation among youth started a long time ago By the 1970s and 1980s its rate increased greatly due to secularization and increase in freedom Being aware of this growing trend in cohabitation this book surveys the extent of cohabitation among students in higher learning institutions in Tanzania and how it affects the academic performance of the cohabiting partners It means that the book assesses both positive and negative effects for this style of life among the surveyed students Therefore this book is important to both university and college students so that they can be aware of the positive and negative effects of cohabitation especially in terms of academic performance

Mindfulness in Internet and New Media Wen-Ko Chiou, Chao Liu, Hao Chen, Shuhua Zhou, 2023-10-24 Mindfulness is about being aware in a certain way being consciously aware on purpose living in the present moment without mental judgment In addition to the in depth application of mindfulness in different subdisciplines of psychology e.g. social, personality, clinical, developmental, health, organizational. There is also a trend toward cross-fertilization with other social and behavioral disciplines e.g. design, kinesiology, sociology, family studies, education, anthropology, neuroscience, philosophy, economics, medicine, organizational science. However, the application of mindfulness in the field of communication is limited. With the rapid development of the Internet and new media, the study of Internet communication is growing rapidly. The Internet and new media make it easy to connect with others, explore a new world, and regard cyberspace as an extension of one's own thoughts and personality. Nevertheless, when people use the Internet and new media mindlessly, they will easily experience the social effects on their virtual selves and encounter psychological problems e.g. network morality, network anxiety, network pornography, network addiction, and cyberbullying, which has become a widespread and serious problem. As an important part of positive psychology, mindfulness intervention has been proved to help improve a series of negative psychological states and promote positive emotions and subjective well-being. However, what theoretical and practical contributions can mindfulness in the Internet and new media bring remains unknown. Thus, this Research Topic focuses on the influence and intervention of mindfulness on the psychological problems caused by the network new media communication. We welcome high quality studies using a variety of research methods including quantitative, qualitative, mixed methods, and reviews on the second generation of mindfulness interventions and other meditation-based interventions e.g. focused attention meditation, transcendental meditation, and loving-kindness meditation. This Research Topic encourages submissions that cover but are not limited to the following topics: 1. The Internet and new media guided mindfulness and loving-kindness meditation practice; 2. Mindfulness and interpersonal communication in the network; network trust; network security; network intimacy; 3. Mindfulness and network clustering behavior; 4. Mindfulness and online consumer psychology; 5. Mindfulness and cyber-moral psychology; cyberbullying; cyber-altruism and prosocial behavior; 6. Mindfulness and online pornography; 7. Mindfulness and internet addiction; 8. Mindfulness and online psychological counseling; 9. Mindfulness and new media anxiety.

Challenges Associated with Cross-Cultural and At-Risk Student Engagement Gordon, Richard K., Akutsu, Taichi, McDermott, J. Cynthia, Lalas, Jose W., 2016-12-12. Creating a meaningful and interactive learning environment is a complex task for any educator. However, once this is accomplished, students have the chance to receive enhanced opportunities for knowledge development and retention. Challenges Associated with Cross Cultural and At Risk Student Engagement provides a comprehensive examination on emerging strategies for optimizing instructional environments in modern school systems and emphasizes the role that intercultural education plays in this endeavor. Highlighting research perspectives across numerous topics such as curriculum design, student-teacher interaction, and critical pedagogies, this book is an ideal reference source for professionals, academics, educators, school administrators, and practitioners interested in academic success in high-stakes assessment environments. Decolonizing Educational Knowledge Ann E. Lopez, Herveen Singh, 2024-06-03. This volume explores theories and practices of decolonizing education drawing on international perspectives from scholars across the globe to engage new knowledges and build solidarities across different spaces Decolonization is an ongoing process in which educators community members and practitioners alike have a stake in challenging Eurocentric paradigms and ways of knowing The book showcases the contributions of praxis oriented scholars and practitioners who seek to engage in decolonizing praxis that unsettles educational norms forging new ways of thinking about teaching learning and leadership

Psychology of Music Siu-Lan Tan, Peter Pfordresher, Rom Harré, 2017-11-02 In Psychology of Music From Sound to Significance 2nd edition the authors consider music on a broad scale from its beginning as an acoustical signal to its different manifestations across cultures In their second edition the authors apply the same richness of depth and scope that was a hallmark of the first edition of this text In addition having laid out the topography of the field in the original book the second edition puts greater emphasis on linking academic learning to real world contexts and on including compelling topics that appeal to students natural curiosity Chapters have been updated with approximately 500 new citations to reflect advances in the field The organization of the book remains the same as the first edition while chapters have been updated and often expanded with new topics Part I Foundations explores the acoustics of sound the auditory system and responses to music in the brain Part II The Perception and Cognition of Music focuses on how we process pitch melody meter rhythm and musical structure Part III Development Learning and Performance describes how musical capacities and skills unfold beginning before birth and extending to the advanced and expert musician And finally Part IV The Meaning and Significance of Music explores social emotional philosophical and cultural dimensions of music and meaning This book will be invaluable to undergraduates and postgraduate students in psychology and music and will appeal to anyone who is interested in the vital and expanding field of psychology of music
