Handbook of Research on Coping Mechanisms for First-Year Students Transitioning to Higher Education

Aloka, Peter, Mukuna, Kananga Robert, 2023-02-20 Transitioning from secondary to higher education is not a natural step for many first year students in higher education institutions. There is a considerable difference between being a student at school and university and previous research has highlighted the difficulties faced by first year university students during their transition phase. Higher education institutions and their departments acknowledge the challenges faced by new students and they differ in their approach to coping with the issue each seeks to find the most effective solution for its students. To reduce the withdrawal rate during the first year of college, higher education providers are expected to apply transition programs to help students transition. The Handbook of Research on Coping Mechanisms for First Year Students Transitioning to Higher Education presents a comprehensive account of the dynamics in higher education institutions and culture shock for new students and analyzes models and theories of adjustment of new students in higher education institutions. Covering key topics such as gender, institutional support and success factors, this reference work is ideal for administrators, higher education professionals, researchers, scholars, academicians, practitioners, instructors, and students.

Tokyo Daigaku Yobimon Or Preparatory School of the University ..., 1882      Misogyny across Global Media Maria B. Marron, 2021-03-01 Misogyny across Global Media argues that although women's experiences under misogyny are by no means universal, patriarchal social and institutional systems facilitate gender-based hostility across the globe. Contributors demonstrate how systemic misogyny and power inequities are at the root of women's suffering at the hands of misogyny with consequences ranging from sexual harassment to rape and even murder. This book provides an interdisciplinary overview of systemic misogyny worldwide, analyzing specific cases such as the controversial Child Marriage Act in Bangladesh, sexual harassment in India's Bollywood culture, rape culture among military forces in Jammu and Kashmir, the murder of female students in Kenya, and femicide in Turkey. This collection discusses how misogyny creates a clash of cultures between men and women, the powerful and the oppressed, and the conservative and the liberal, and uncovers the evils that are perpetrated against women worldwide as a result of systemic misogyny. Scholars of gender studies, media studies, and cultural studies will find this book particularly useful.

Report of the 2020 WASAG Webinar Series Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2024-02-05 In 2020, amidst the challenges posed by the COVID-19 epidemiological situation, the Global Framework on Water Scarcity in Agriculture (WASAG) has continued to work on addressing pressing issues related to water scarcity in agriculture in a changing climate. WASAG organized a series of webinars to pursue its mandate under new digital means as webinars were recognized as an opportunity to quickly adapt to the new current challenges. Using the combined expertise and resources of its many Partners, WASAG presented a variety of topics related to water scarcity and agriculture.

to WASAG Partners stakeholders and the interested public These topics included water and gender financing mechanisms water and nutrition drought preparedness sustainable agriculture water use and saline agriculture which also include promoting quinoa as a drought and salt tolerance crop With ten webinars organized between May and December 2020 this report highlights the key messages given by a wide variety of speakers that participated in making this new initiative a real success It is expected that this report will lead to more in depth capacity development in the several topics discussed to collaboration in developing and implementing projects addressing these topics and to offering a variety of innovative solutions to the communities countries and regions that have to cope with water scarcity in agriculture immigration and civil unrest and to illustrate where and how a peace journalism approach can lead to more responsible and constructive coverage and even assist in the peace process itself

Factors Impacting Student Well-Being and Coping Tactics Aloka, Peter Jo, 2024-08-23 Higher education institutions grapple with a pressing challenge the well being of their students Amidst the transition to university life students face a myriad of stressors from academic pressures to managing finances and social connections Yet there continues to be a lack of robust evidence and focused literature addressing this critical issue Factors Impacting Student Well Being and Coping Tactics presents a comprehensive analysis of the factors influencing mental emotional and social health in higher education settings This book explores the intrinsic and extrinsic elements shaping student well being through meticulously curated chapters from risk factors to protective mechanisms By offering evidence based strategies and practical recommendations the book empowers academics administrators and counselors to proactively address students challenges and foster a supportive environment conducive to personal and scholarly growth

Media, Conflict and Peacebuilding in Africa Jacinta Maweu, Admire Mare, 2021-03-29 This book explores the role and place of popular traditional and digital media platforms in the mediatization representation and performance of various conflicts and peacebuilding interventions in the African context The role of the media in conflict is often depicted as either good as symbolized by peace journalism or bad as exemplified by war journalism but this book moves beyond this binary to highlight the in between role that the media often plays in times of conflict The volume does not only focus on the relationship between mass media conflict and peacebuilding processes but it broadens its scope by critically analysing the dynamic and emergent roles of popular and digital media platforms in a continent where the semi literate and oral communities still rely heavily on popular communication platforms to get news and information Whilst social media platforms have been hailed for their assumed democratic and digital dividends this book does not only focus on these positive aspects but also shines a light on dark forms of participation which are fuelling racial gender ethnic political and religious conflicts in highly polarized and stratified societies Highlighting the many ways in which traditional digital and popular media can be used to both escalate conflicts and promote peacebuilding this volume will be a useful resource for students researchers and civil society groups interested in peace and conflict studies journalism and media studies in different contexts within Africa

Deaf Education Beyond the Western World Harry Knoors, Maria Brons, Marc Marschark, 2019-01-16 If teachers want to educate deaf learners effectively they have to apply evidence informed methods and didactics with the needs of individual deaf students in mind Education in general and education for deaf learners in particular is situated in broader societal contexts where what works within the Western world may be quite different from what works beyond the Western world By exploring practice based and research based evidence about deaf education in countries that largely have been left out of the international discussion thus far this volume encourages more researchers in more countries to continue investigating the learning environment of deaf learners based on the premise of leaving no one behind Featuring chapters centering on 19

countries from Africa Asia Latin America and Central and Eastern Europe the volume offers a picture of deaf education from the perspectives of local scholars and teachers who demonstrate best practices and challenges within their respective regional contexts This volume addresses the notion of learning through the exchange of knowledge outlines the commonalities and differences between practices and policies in educating deaf and hard of hearing learners and looks ahead to the prospects for the future development of deaf education research in the context of recently adopted international legal frameworks Stimulating academic exchange regionally and globally among scholars and teachers who are fascinated by and invested in deaf education this volume strengthens the foundation for further improvement of education for deaf children all around the world

Using Positive Psychology Interventions to Promote Well-Being Among Students in Higher-Education Institutions Peter J. O. Aloka, 2025-07-03 This book explores positive psychology interventions strategies which are aimed at enhancing positive emotions cognitions and happiness among students in higher education institutions Students worldwide have reported increased psychosocial issues which negatively affect their overall well being and mental health The poor well being and mental health of university students has led to among other things high attrition rate suicide cases low academic performance and increased psychological and social problems among them There has been increased interest in reach on the well being and mental health of students in higher education However despite this there is still scanty research on positive psychology interventions that could be adopted to boost well being and mental health of students in higher education institutions This book significantly contributes to the body of knowledge on adoption of holistic perspectives to boost well being and mental health of students in higher education institutions

The Status of Student Involvement in University Governance in Kenya M. Mulinge, N. Arasa, 2017-05-05 This book examines the concept of the democratization of governance in universities in Kenya with particular emphasis on students involvement in governance processes and decision making Data were collected from members of the student community utilizing a structured self administered questionnaire and from purposively selected key informants and focus group discussants drawn from Kenyatta University representing the public sector and the United States International University representing the private sector The guiding argument for the study was that shared governance one of the principles of good governance is critical in enabling the universities to deliver their visions and the missions effectively The results revealed that while in principle Kenyan universities have embraced democratic governance in which all stakeholders including students have a role to play in practice they continue to violate the core principles of good governance particularly shared governance Specifically students who are major stakeholders in university education are largely excluded from significant structures of governance thereby limiting their influence and participation Although their representation is mainly provided via student self governance organs unions associations and or councils their effectiveness is undermined considerably by the lack of trust and confidence of the student body and the unending manipulation by top university administrators and external political actors Student active involvement in decision making is mainly confined to lower levels such as the school faculty and departmental programme The authors call for a paradigm shift in the involvement of students in the governance of universities in ways that discourage the current culture of tokenism and political correctness that characterizes public and private universities in Kenya Quality Education and International Partnership for Textile and Fashion Xinfeng Yan,Lihong Chen,Hafeezullah Memon,2023-07-02 This book mainly focuses on SDG4 Quality Education and aims to understand the past present and future of textile fashion apparel and related study majors of East African countries Professors and field experts in textile engineering of selected countries describe the potential and prospects of textile education and how it can lead to internationalization in the various chapters It also discusses the textile university alliance and the potential for international education related to textiles in the developing region With updated illustrations images data graphs and tables this book serves as a reference book for universities with textile engineering major in countries throughout the world Handbook of Research on Managing Intellectual
