Rover Cars 1945 to 2005 James Taylor, This comprehensive pictorial overview of Rover cars covers 1945 2005 models It describes and illustrates all the great classic Rovers up to and including the SD1 British Leyland models with Rover badges the models designed in conjunction with Honda the later British designed cars and finally the little known City Rover

British Car Advertising of the 1960s Heon Stevenson, 2015-03-27 During the 1960s the automobile finally secured its position as an indispensable component of daily life in Britain Car ownership more than doubled from approximately one car for every 10 people in 1960 to one car for every 4 8 people by 1970 Consumers no longer asked Do we need a car but What car shall we have This well illustrated history analyzes how both domestic car manufacturers and importers advertised their products in this growing market identifying trends and themes Over 180 advertisement illustrations are included

British Leyland James Taylor, 2018-03-26 In 1968 British Leyland brought together many of Britain's motor manufacturers with the intention of creating a robust unified group that could equal the strength of the big European conglomerates But this was not to be There have been many books about the politics and the business activities of British Leyland but British Leyland The Cars 1968 1986 looks exclusively at the cars that came from the company both the models it inherited and those it created The eighteen years of the corporation's existence saw a confusing multitude of different car types but this book resolves these confusions clarifying who built what and when The book takes 1986 as its cut off point because this was the year that the old British Leyland ceased to exist and what was left of the car and light commercial business was renamed the Rover Group The book includes Production histories and technical specifications of every major model The special overseas models Appendices on engines code names and factories Buying guidance on the models built in Britain This is the most comprehensive book so far to focus on the cars from British Leyland between 1968 1986 and it provides an overview of each model's production history together with essential specification details It is profusely illustrated with 178 colour and 63 b w photographs
