Slow Burn R. Jisung Park, 2025-07-29 How the subtle but significant consequences of a hotter planet have already begun from lower test scores to higher crime rates and how we might tackle them today It s hard not to feel anxious about the problem of climate change especially if we think of it as an impending planetary catastrophe In Slow Burn R Jisung Park encourages us to view climate change through a different lens one that focuses less on the possibility of mass climate extinction in a theoretical future and more on the everyday implications of climate change here and now Drawing on a wealth of new data and cutting edge economics Park shows how climate change headlines often miss some of the most important costs When wildfires blaze what happens to people downwind of the smoke When natural disasters destroy buildings and bridges what happens to educational outcomes Park explains how climate change operates as the silent accumulation of a thousand tiny conflagrations imperceptibly elevated health risks spread across billions of people pennies off the dollar of productivity fewer opportunities for upward mobility By investigating how the physical phenomenon of climate change interacts with social and economic institutions Park illustrates how climate change already affects everyone and may act as an amplifier of inequality Wealthier households and corporations may adapt quickly but without targeted interventions less advantaged communities may not Viewing climate change as a slow and unequal burn comes with an important silver lining It puts dollars and cents behind the case for aggressive emissions cuts and helps identify concrete steps that can be taken to better manage its adverse effects We can begin to overcome our climate anxiety Park shows us when we begin to tackle these problems locally

Candeias, Heldemerina S. Pires, Miguel Ángel Carbonero, 2018-08-31 This book is devoted to an increasingly important educational problem in the modern societies: school achievement and failure. School failure is presently a problem in developed as well as in developing countries. In the Spanish and Portuguese speaking countries in Europe and Latin America school achievement and failure is consequently an important topic of political, social and scientific discussion. The following papers revise the latest research in the field from the perspective of Psychology. Primary Science Education in East Asia Yew-Jin Lee, Jason Tan, 2018-09-26 This edited volume is a state of the art comparison of primary science education across six East Asian regions: namely the People's Republic of China, Republic of Korea, Republic of China Hong Kong SAR, Japan and Singapore. While news of educational policies, classroom teaching, assessment and other educational innovations here often surface in the international media, this book brings together for the first time relevant information regarding educational systems and strategies in primary science in East Asia. Above all, it is a readable yet comprehensive survey; readers would have an accurate sense of what has been accomplished, what has not worked so well, and what remains to be done. Invited experts in comparative education research and/or science education also provide commentary by discussing common themes across the six regions. These types of critical synoptic reviews add much value by enabling readers to understand broad commonalities and help synthesize what must surely be a bewildering amount of very interesting albeit confusing body of facts issues and policies Education in East Asia holds many lessons both positive and negative to offer to the rest of the world to which this volume is a timely contribution to the literature     Advanced Materials Science III Sarjito,,Waluyo Adi Siswanto,Tri Widodo Besar Riyadi,2021-05-04 Selected peer reviewed full text papers from the 3rd International Conference on Advanced Materials Science ICOAMS 2020 Selected peer reviewed papers from the 3rd International Conference on Advanced Materials Science ICOAMS 2020 December 8 9 2020 Surakarta Indonesia     Message of the President of the United States Transmitting the Budget for the Service of the Fiscal Year Ending ... United States,1938     The Science Teacher's Toolbox Tara C.
