Science for the Protection of Indonesian Coastal Ecosystems (SPICE) Tim C. Jennerjahn, Tim Rixen, Hari Eko Irianto, Joko Samiaji, 2021-10-13 Science for the Protection of Indonesian Coastal Ecosystems SPICE provides key information on all aspects related to the management of coastal ecosystems. This includes the coastal management involved, the ecology of this area, and the relationship between humans and the environment found here. The book presents guidelines defined by scientific experts allowing for proper application of science products into ecosystem management. The bio-geo-physical importance of coastal ecosystems of Indonesia makes this a book of global importance and interest. Written by an Indonesian-German author team giving a unique and global perspective on the coastal ecosystems. Presents text boxes with research gaps and policy implications giving the reader an easy grasp of what needs to be done in terms of research and management. Features best practice case studies that can be applied to coastal ecosystems around the world offered through the lens of Indonesia, a region of global relevance in terms of climate and environmental change.

Big Data Analytics for Cyber-Physical System in Smart City Mohammed Atiquzzaman, Neil Yen, Zheng Xu, 2020-01-11 This book gathers a selection of peer-reviewed papers presented at the first Big Data Analytics for Cyber Physical System in Smart City BDCPS 2019 conference held in Shengyang, China, on 28-29 December 2019. The contributions prepared by an international team of scientists and engineers cover the latest advances made in the field of machine learning and big data analytics methods and approaches for the data-driven co-design of communication, computing, and control for smart cities. Given its scope, it offers a valuable resource for all researchers and professionals interested in big data, smart cities, and cyber physical systems.

Decentralisation and Regional Development Eva Dick, Karin Gaesing, Daniel Inkoom, Teodoro Kausel, 2016-06-15 This book analyzes decentralisation, regional development paths, and success factors in different governance sectors in Ghana, the Philippines, Tanzania, and Chile, and discusses overarching aspects of relevance. Decentralisation, which refers to the delegation of administrative responsibilities political decision making and fiscal powers to lower levels of government is now considered one of the most efficient engines of development In Sub Saharan Africa decentralised states have made more progress in reducing poverty than those states with lower decentralisation scores But in many countries decentralisation is still considered a work in progress with unsatisfactory results From a spatial point of view the link between decentralisation and regional and district development is particularly interesting Both in the North and in the South regional or district development is seen as holding the potential for advancing social and economic development and even more so in decentralised political settings Space based networks at the regional or district level are considered instrumental for responding to locally specific challenges e g in areas lagging behind economically
