From Student to Urban Planner Tuna Taşan-Kok, Mark Oranje, 2017-12-06 For many young planners the noble intentions with going to planning school seem starkly out of place in the neoliberal worlds they have come to inhabit For some the huge gap between the power they thought they would have and what they actually do is not only worrying but also deeply discouraging But for some others practice means finding practical and creative solutions to overcome challenges and complexities How do young planners in different settings respond to seemingly similar situations like these What do they do give up adjust or fight back What role did their planning education play and could it have helped in preparing and assisting them to respond to the world they are encountering In this edited volume stories of young planners from sixteen countries that engage these questions are presented The sixteen cases range from settings with older established planning systems e g USA the Netherlands and the UK to settings where the system is less set e g Brazil being remodeled e g South Africa and Bosnia Herzegovina and under stress e g Turkey and Poland Each chapter explores what might be done differently to prepare young planners for the complexities and challenges of their real worlds This book not only points out what is absent but also offers planning educators an alternative vision The editors and esteemed contributors provide reflections and suggestions as to how this new generation of young planners can be supported to survive in embrace and change the world they are encountering and in the spirit of planning endeavor to change it for the better Separate Beds Maureen K. Lux, 2016-05-09 Separate Beds is the shocking story of Canada's system of segregated health care Operated by the same bureaucracy that was expanding health care opportunities for most Canadians the Indian Hospitals were underfunded understaffed overcrowded and rife with coercion and medical experimentation Established to keep the Aboriginal tuberculosis population isolated they became a means of ensuring that other Canadians need not share access to modern hospitals with Aboriginal patients Tracing the history of the system from its fragmentary origins to its gradual collapse Maureen K Lux describes the arbitrary and contradictory policies that governed the Indian Hospitals the experiences of patients and staff and the vital grassroots activism that pressed the federal government to acknowledge its treaty obligations A disturbing look at the dark side of the liberal welfare state Separate Beds reveals a history of racism and negligence in health care for Canada's First Nations that should never be forgotten UNESCO science report UNESCO, 2015-11-09 There are fewer grounds today than in the past to deplore a North South divide in research and innovation This is one of the key findings of the UNESCO Science Report towards 2030 A large number of countries are now incorporating science technology and innovation in their national development agenda in order to make their economies less reliant on raw materials and more rooted in knowledge Most research and development R D is taking place in high income countries but innovation of some kind is now occurring across the full spectrum of income levels according to the first survey of manufacturing companies in 65 countries conducted by the UNESCO Institute for Statistics and summarized in this report For many lower income countries sustainable development has become an integral part of their national development plans for the next 10 20 years Among higher income countries a firm commitment to sustainable development is often coupled with the desire to maintain competitiveness in global markets that are increasingly leaning towards green technologies The quest for clean energy and greater energy efficiency now figures among the research priorities of numerous countries Written by more than 50 experts who are each covering the country or region from which they hail the UNESCO Science Report towards 2030 provides more country level information than ever before The trends and developments in science technology and innovation policy and governance between 2009 and mid 2015 described here provide essential baseline information on the concerns and priorities of countries that could orient the implementation and drive the assessment of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development in the years to come Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Proceedings of the International Conference on Mathematical Sciences and Statistics 2022 (ICMSS 2022) Nadiah Wahi, Muhammad Aslam Mohd Safari, Roslan Hasni, Fatimah Abdul Razak, Ibragimov Gafurjan, Anwar Fitrianto, 2023-02-10 This is an open access book The ICMSS2022 is an international Region-Building in Africa Daniel H. Levine, Dawn Nagar, 2016-05-19 This landmark book is the first of its kind to assess the challenges of African region building and regional integration across all five African sub regions and more than five decades of experience considering both political and economic aspects Leading scholars and practitioners come together to analyze a range of entwined topics including the theoretical underpinnings that have informed Africa's regional integration trajectory the political economy of integration including the sources of different waves of integration in pan Africanism and the reaction to neo liberal economic pressures the complexities of integration in a context of weak states and the informal regionalization that often occurs in borderlands the increasing salience of Africa's relationships with rising extra regional economic powers including China and India and comparative lessons from non African regional blocs including the EU ASEAN and the Southern Common Market A core argument of this book running through all chapters is that region building must be recognized as a political project as much as if not more than an economic one successful region building in Africa will need to include the complex political tasks of strengthening state capacity including states capacity as developmental states that can actively engage in economic planning resolving long standing conflicts over resources and political dominance improving democratic governance and developing trans national political structures that are legitimate and inclusive

Classicism and the Construction of Capital Cities Richard Alston, 2025-05-15 Exploring the intriguing interplay between tradition and modernity in the 19th century capitals of London Athens and Rome Richard Alston delves into the political and architectural choices that shaped these cities as representations of self consciously modern nations Politicians and architects invested in classical styles in their efforts to break with traditions and assert new values Classical style was employed to address questions of urbanism and nation citizenship and belonging and history and civilization The story of 19th century architectural Classicism offers a compelling narrative of utopian dreams clashing with authoritarian politics to generate the complexities of modern urban landscapes Through these three case studies this book illuminates how Classicism became a potent tool for expressing elitist nationalism in London excluding Greeks from their own capital in Athens and reinforcing aspiration to a technocratic new Rome As such grand visions collided with modern urban realities Alston unravels the mythic allure and ultimate failure of these utopian endeavours This book presents a riveting exploration of the architectural choices that reflected the aspirations and challenges of a rapidly changing world leaving a lasting impact on the capitals and their nations Socially Engaged Art and Ethics Anthony Schrag, 2025-07-18 Bringing together artists curators activists academics managers and educators from around the world this unique anthology examines the notion of ethics within socially engaged art The volume aims to deepen conversations around what good or right activities could be in this developing and expanding practice and readers are invited to consider the contextual nature of socially engaged art its politics infrastructures and values Supported by case studies from the United Kingdom the United States China Cuba South Africa and Norway as well as discussions relating to education cultural policy and activism this volume provides a much needed critical analysis in the making curating commissioning and managing of socially engaged art This collection is an ideal text for interdisciplinary courses that place visual arts including design or performance within social and political contexts but also for students and scholars of art history and visual studies more generally Recalibrating teacher training in African higher education institutions Sifiso Sibanda, Gideon (Deon) P. van Tonder, Washington T. Dudu, 2023-03-01 This book critically examines the role of governments in promoting parity during and in post pandemic education This comes from the realisation that the pandemic has deepened the crisis by depleting the meagre resources that African countries might have devoted to normative educational practices where those on the margins would have been pushed further behind while the privileged would have been further initiated into the cultural and capital flows of private schools and historically research intensive institutions of higher learning This has far reaching implications for the education of underprivileged citizens and education particularly modes and modalities of delivery has to be reimagined to subvert the challenges wrought by the pandemic This book significantly bridges the gap between the pre and post COVID 19 pandemic pedagogical practices and the erstwhile modalities that have been resilient over time The book focuses on ways to stave off pedagogical challenges that face countries as the global pandemic makes its mark War On Wealth, The: Fact And Fiction In British Finance Since 1800 Ranald Michie, 2023-03-21 This book addresses the divide that exists between the reality of finance and the image it projects A functioning financial system is an essential feature of a modern economy providing it with money credit capital and investments Conversely those who provide this essential service are neither respected nor trusted The causes and consequences of this divide is explored using the British experience from 1800 to the present drawing upon a mixture of factual evidence and contemporary fiction Nothing of this scale has been attempted before and this is the product of 50 years of research Farmer's Weekly ,1927 Доклад Юнеско По Науке - 2015 - На пути к 2030 году UNESCO Publishing,ITMO University,2017-03-06
