Undergraduate Prospectus Universiteit van Stellenbosch, 2000 China and Africa in Global Context LI

Anshan, 2022-02-23 This book studies the relationship between China and Africa by reviewing this history and current state of interactions offering a valuable addition to the often heated and contentious debate surrounding China's engagement in Africa from a Chinese angle. Comprising four parts, the book covers a kaleidoscopic range of topics on China-Africa relations based on materials from different languages. Part I looks into early historical contact between China and Africa and the historiography of African Studies in China in recent decades. Part II probes the origins, dynamics, challenges, and cultural heritage of China's policies towards Africa. Part III explores the issue of development cooperation from both a theoretical and a practical point of view, with a focus on the case of Chinese medical teams in Africa and China's technology transfer to the continent. Part IV illustrates bilateral migration, discussing the history and life of Chinese immigrants in Africa and the African diaspora in China. The insights in this book, as well as real-life case studies, will make this work an indispensable reference for academics, students, policy makers, and general readers who are interested in international issues and area studies, especially China-Africa relations, China's rise, and African development.

The Stellenbosch Mafia Pieter du Toit, 2019-07-15 About 50km outside of Cape Town lies the beautiful town of Stellenbosch, nestled against vineyards and blue mountains that stretch to the sky. Here reside some of South Africa's wealthiest individuals: all male, all Afrikaans, and all stinking rich. Johann Rupert, Jannie Mouton, Markus Jooste, and Christo Weise, to name a few. Julius Malema refers to them scathingly as The Stellenbosch Mafia, the very worst example of white monopoly capital. But who really are these mega-wealthy individuals, and what influence do they exert, not only on Stellenbosch but more broadly on South African society? Author Pieter du Toit begins by exploring the roots of Stellenbosch, one of the wealthiest towns in South Africa and arguably the cradle of Afrikanerdom. This is the birthplace of apartheid leaders, intellectuals, newspaper empires, and more. He then closely examines this club of billionaires: Who are they, and crucially, how are they connected? What network of boardroom membership, alliances, and family connections exist? Who are the old guard, and who are the newcomers, and what about the youngsters desperate to make their mark? He looks at the collapse of Steinhoff: what went wrong, and whether there are other companies at risk of a similar fate. He examines the control these men have over cultural life, including pulling the strings in South African rugby.

Culture, Organization, and Management in South Africa Marja Spijrenburg, Harry Wels, 2006 South Africa is celebrating its first decade of democratic freedom. It therefore seems appropriate to examine in more detail how South Africa has tried to restore some of the many social injustices caused by the former apartheid regime. This book offers a view into the world of organisation and management from a cultural perspective. The authors investigate how initiatives and policies, with the aim of generating more employment equity, have been developed, implemented, and have worked out in various sectors of the South African economy. The various chapters present in-depth case studies that deal with the South African government, local NGOs, universities and tourism The book reveals in detail the local struggles of the historically disadvantaged and the powers that be to try and live up to the ideals of the New South Africa Postgraduate prospectus University of Stellenbosch,2004

Prospectus and List of Members Hakluyt Society,1927 Includes a list of the society's publications The Strategic Repositioning of Arts, Culture and Heritage in the 21st Century George Mugovhani,Owen Seda,2018-06-11 The post millennium world has been experiencing several recognisable historical milestones with regard to arts culture and heritage One of these has been the resuscitation and revival of creative elements of the arts culture and heritage of previously marginalised or disadvantaged communities around the world Until recently there had been scant regard and skewed allocation of resources for these but lately attempts have been made to promote and sustain them in order to enable the socio economic aspirations of a multicultural society The contributions brought together here are the product of papers that were presented during a conference on Strategic Repositioning of Arts Culture and Heritage in the 21st Century They cover a broad spectrum of subjects such as indigeneity music song and identity politics national reconciliation education product development and national development South African historical journal ,1996 Educational Systems of Africa Inez Sepmeyer,Martena Sasnett,1966 Business Information, Directory of Sources M. Internationalisation of African Higher Education Chika Sehoole,Jane Knight,2013-10-30 The role of higher education especially the international dimension is given little importance in the discourse on achieving the Millennium Development Goals MDGs in Africa This book aims to change that The potential of higher education's contribution to Africa's development remains unrealized and often misunderstood In today's globalised world which prioritises economic growth through liberalised trade and competitive market strategies much emphasis has been placed on higher education's ability to produce graduates to serve the labour market and produce new knowledge for the knowledge economy While these are important contributions the book argues that international higher education and new knowledge must go beyond economic purposes and serve the human and social development needs of the continent It is against this background that the African Network for the Internationalisation of Education ANIE undertook research on the international dimension of higher education in Africa and its role in the achievement of the MDGs Through empirical research seven case studies address how international and regional higher education programmes and policies in African universities can address MDG priorities of promoting gender equality and women's empowerment combating HIV AIDS and establishing global partnerships for development through academic mobility joint research initiatives curriculum innovation and policy development
