WITWATERSRAND
JOHANNESBURG

The background of the cover is a photograph of a savanna landscape at sunset. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and blue. The ground is dry and brown. In the distance, there are silhouettes of trees and a few small structures. Overlaid on the image are several concentric, semi-transparent circles in shades of blue and purple, creating a layered effect.

Prospectus Of University Of Northwest For 2016:

The Outlaw Ocean Ian Urbina, 2019-08-20 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A riveting adrenaline fueled tour of a vast lawless and rampantly criminal world that few have ever seen the high seas There are few remaining frontiers on our planet But perhaps the wildest and least understood are the world's oceans too big to police and under no clear international authority these immense regions of treacherous water play host to rampant criminality and exploitation Traffickers and smugglers pirates and mercenaries wreck thieves and repo men vigilante conservationists and elusive poachers seabound abortion providers clandestine oil dumpers shackled slaves and cast adrift stowaways drawing on five years of perilous and intrepid reporting often hundreds of miles from shore Ian Urbina introduces us to the inhabitants of this hidden world Through their stories of astonishing courage and brutality survival and tragedy he uncovers a globe spanning network of crime and exploitation that emanates from the fishing oil and shipping industries and on which the world's economies rely Both a gripping adventure story and a stunning exposé this unique work of reportage brings fully into view for the first time the disturbing reality of a floating world that connects us all a place where anyone can do anything because no one is watching

Living Matter: The Preservation of Biological Materials in Contemporary Art Rachel Rivenc, Kendra Roth, 2022-05-24 This innovative volume is the first to address the conservation of contemporary art incorporating biological materials such as plants foods bodily fluids or genetically engineered organisms Eggshells flowers onion peels sponge cake dried bread breast milk bacteria living organisms these are just a few of the biological materials that contemporary artists are using to make art But how can works made from such perishable ingredients be preserved And what logistical ethical and conceptual dilemmas might be posed by doing so Because they are prone to rapid decay even complete disappearance biological materials used in art pose a range of unique conservation challenges This groundbreaking book probes the issues associated with displaying collecting and preserving these unique works of art The twenty four papers from the conference present a range of case studies prominently featuring artists perspectives as well as conceptual discussions thereby affording a comprehensive and richly detailed overview of current thinking and practices on this topic Living Matter is the first publication to explore broadly the role of biological materials in the creative process and present a variety of possible approaches to their preservation The free online edition of this open access publication is available at www.getty.edu/publications/living-matter and includes videos and zoomable illustrations Also available are free PDF EPUB and Kindle MOBI downloads of the book

Self-Tracking Btihaj Ajana, 2017-10-01 This book provides an empirical and philosophical investigation of self tracking practices In recent years there has been an explosion of apps and devices that enable the data capturing and monitoring of everyday activities behaviours and habits Encouraged by movements such as the Quantified Self a growing number of people are embracing this culture of quantification and tracking in the spirit of improving their health and wellbeing The aim of this book is to enhance understanding of this fast growing trend bringing together scholars who are working at the forefront of the critical study of self tracking practices Each chapter provides a different conceptual lens through which one can examine these practices while grounding the discussion in relevant empirical examples From phenomenology to discourse analysis from questions of identity privacy and agency to issues of surveillance and tracking at the workplace this edited collection takes on a wide and yet focused approach to the timely topic of self tracking It constitutes a useful companion for scholars students and everyday users interested in the Quantified Self phenomenon

Deconstructing Digital Capitalism and the Smart Society Mel van Elteren, 2025-01-01 Today's critics of big online platforms tend to consider privacy breaches monopolistic practices and the deployment of surveillance technologies as the main problems Internet reformers suggest the answers to these issues reside in more and better regulations While the questions of privacy data and size are indeed important they are secondary however to a deeper set of concerns about platform ownership and control and who benefits from the current status quo This book examines these issues and offers an historical overview and in depth analysis of digital capitalism and its prevailing practices as it has become increasingly intertwined with various forms of online surveillance behavior modification and the delegation of managerial functions to algorithmic and automated systems in platform economies The approach taken extends to the wider array of data driven internet connected and automated systems that involve digital devices and technologies centered on three smart spaces the smart self the smart home and the smart city Antitrust and other regulatory measures by the European Union and the United States that are aimed at restraining platform capitalism are also discussed The focus in particular is on recent developments regarding artificial intelligence and their potentially harmful implications This is followed by a critical look at proposals for more far reaching institutional reforms revolving around the creation of forms of platform socialism that build partly on existing practices of platform cooperativism The book concludes with a diagnosis of the global situation among the competing digital empires the United States the European Union and China and considers whether or not under the present conditions any form of democratic platform socialism could materialize on a wider scale in the near future

Phenomenology and Intercultural Understanding

Kwok-Ying Lau, 2016-09-29 This book approaches the topic of intercultural understanding in philosophy from a phenomenological perspective It provides a bridge between Western and Eastern philosophy through in depth discussion of concepts and doctrines of phenomenology and ancient and contemporary Chinese philosophy Phenomenological readings of Daoist and Buddhist philosophies are provided the reader will find a study of theoretical and methodological issues and innovative readings of traditional Chinese and Indian philosophies from the phenomenological perspective The author uses a descriptive rigor to avoid cultural prejudices and provides a non Eurocentric conception and practice of philosophy Through this East West comparative study a compelling criticism of a Eurocentric conception of philosophy emerges New concepts and methods in intercultural philosophy are proposed through these chapters Researchers teachers post graduates and students of philosophy will all find this work intriguing and those with an interest in non Western philosophy or phenomenology will find it particularly engaging Exhibiting the Archive Peter Lester, 2022-06-24 Exhibiting the Archive examines the role that exhibition plays in archives and analyses the impact they are understood to have on how users and visitors experience the archive Drawing on research conducted in Europe North America and Australia the book analyses the key theoretical and social influences on exhibition making in archives today and discusses the role of exhibitions in the archives of tomorrow This is the first in depth study to consider exhibition as more than outreach or advocacy it frames exhibition as an encounter with archives and with people and interprets it as a mechanism for change within the archive Against a backdrop of increasing digital activity Lester asks what experience within the physical space of the archive could be Drawing on ideas of spatiality and embodiment as well as social justice and activism Lester considers the role of exhibitions within the physical archive and the part they can play in reshaping how experience is understood to happen within it Exhibiting the Archive offers a new perspective on the archive that will be of interest to academics and students engaged in the study of archives and records The discussions of cutting edge practice offer new insights into how exhibitions are conceived and made and will therefore be of interest to practitioners around the world Churchill and Industrial Britain Jim Tomlinson, 2024-11-14 This book offers a new understanding of the main economic and political trends of 20th century Britain through the lens of Churchill s early career and approach to industrialisation Shedding fresh light on Churchill s political endeavours between 1900 and 1922 this study analyses his work within his political constituencies and highlights how he attempted to balance their local concerns with his larger imperial agenda Tomlinson guides readers through Britain s industrial challenges at the start of the twentieth century with a particular focus on the textile economies of Churchill s constituencies in Lancashire and Scotland and shows how industrial competition within the Empire exemplified the tensions between domestic economic policy and attempts at globalization and influenced Churchill s later politics Tomlinson acknowledges the role of the First World War in boosting the industrial output and bargaining power of countries within the Empire and analyses these alongside key moments in Churchill s early career such as his defeat at Dundee and time at the Exchequer In doing so the author highlights the context in which Churchill s ideas on the politics and economics of Empire were first formed particularly in relation to the impact of imperial economic policy on British domestic prosperity Ultimately this book delivers a new assessment of twentieth century British economic history in the light of Britain s relationship to the Empire and the first great globalization Phronesis Kristján Kristjánsson, Blaine Fowers, 2024-02-09 Phronesis or practical wisdom has interested philosophers and more recently psychologists for millennia In the last decade or so a bandwagon of diverse academics has been working with and celebrating the notion of phronesis as a metacognitive capacity guiding morally aspirational cognition and action In Phronesis Retrieving Practical Wisdom in Psychology Philosophy and Education Kristján Kristjánsson and Blaine J Fowers work through some of the relevant puzzles created by the recent phronesis discourse filling gaps in the current literatures and pushing the research agenda in new directions The book does so in a way that is radically interdisciplinary and draws in equal measure on insights from psychology philosophy and education Through its revised and applied Aristotelianism the book makes a contribution to vital ongoing debates within moral psychology moral philosophy professional ethics and moral education about the salience of phronesis addressing the topic accessibly both for academics in key disciplines and for a wider readership of intellectually minded readers In addition it offers practical advice about the development and education of phronesis in different areas of professional practice and secondary and college level education

The Power of Anticipatory Images in Student Achievement James M. Davy, 2020-10-03 This book features ten high academically achieving low income inner city students from Newark New Jersey who graduated from public high schools at or near the top of their class and continued to excel in college Using a qualitative research design the author interviewed the ten students and the person who most influenced their educational progress about what motivated them to achieve at such high levels Three mutually reinforcing anticipatory images emerged as a common element of their stories In their own voices the students describe the anticipatory images they framed how they developed them and how they used them to their advantage Davy advances a theoretical model of the Anticipatory Competent student who continually progresses in the directions of the images projected ahead

Erving Goffman and the Cold War Gary D. Jaworski, 2023-08-07 Erving Goffman and the Cold War presents a provocative new reading of the work of sociologist Erving Goffman Instead of viewing him as a marginal man or academic outsider Gary D Jaworski explores Goffman as a social theorist of the Cold War Goffman was deeply connected to both the ethos of his time and to a range of cold warriors and their critics such as Edward A Shils Thomas C Schelling and the researchers on brainwashing associated with the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research among others Chapters on loyalty betrayal secrecy strategy interrogation provocation and aggression concretely illustrate these connections Erving Goffman and the Cold War shows that Goffman was much more than a microsociologist of mundane life

he was a perceptive analyst of the Cold War America

Reimagining Justice, Human Rights and Leadership in Africa Everisto Benyera, 2019-08-08 Failed attempts in Africa to develop democracies and instill virtues of a just state and society which promote benevolent leadership and advance political and economic rights and freedoms call for a new imagination By exploring a wide range of issues concerning justice human rights and leadership this book makes two major contributions to the extant literature in each of these areas Firstly as a project in decoloniality it constitutes an epistemic break from mainstream logics and approaches to understanding state society and development in Africa presenting an approach that is filtered through a Euro-American lens that reifies the hegemony of a particular spatio-temporality In other words it emphasises the importance of situatedness by thinking from rather than about or with Africa And secondly it addresses a fundamental shortcoming in decolonial thought which is often criticised for rejecting western paradigms of thought without providing viable alternatives The issues covered include state failure in Africa the geopolitics of US and NATO military interventions on the continent individual states responses to international law indigenous moral political leadership authentic inclusion of marginalised voices in development practice an endogenous approach to environmental ethics and a spiritualist reflection on the need for Africa to chart her own course to political social and economic redemption By searching for alternative paths to justice human rights and leadership this book represents an effort to actualise the core vision of the African Renaissance to find African solutions for African problems The Oxford Guide to Australian Languages Claire Bowern,2023-06-19 The Oxford Guide to Australian Languages is a wide ranging reference work that explores the more than 550 traditional and new Indigenous languages of Australia Australian languages have long played an important role in diachronic and synchronic linguistics and are a vital testing ground for linguistic theory Until now however there has been no comprehensive and accessible guide to the their vast linguistic diversity This volume fills that gap bringing together leading scholars and junior researchers to provide an up to date guide to all aspects of the languages of Australia The chapters in the book explore typology documentation and classification linguistic structures from phonology to pragmatics and discourse sociolinguistics and language variation and language in the community The final part offers grammatical sketches of a selection of languages sub groups and families At a time when the number of living Australian languages is significantly reduced even compared to twenty year ago this volume establishes priorities for future linguistic research and contributes to the language expansion and revitalization efforts that are underway Research Methods in Consumer Law Hans-W. Micklitz,Anne-Lise Sibony,Fabrizio Esposito, Consumer law is worthy of greater academic attention at a time when many new questions arise and old ones need new answers This unique handbook takes the reader on a journey through existing literature research questions and methods It builds on the state of the art to offer a springboard for jumping to the heart of contemporary issues and equips researchers with a starter s kit to weave together rich traditions ranging from socio economics to behavioural analysis 50 Concepts for a Critical Phenomenology Gail Weiss,Gayle Salamon,Ann V. Murphy,2019-11-15 Phenomenology the philosophical method that seeks to uncover the taken for granted presuppositions habits and norms that structure everyday experience is increasingly framed by ethical and political concerns Critical phenomenology foregrounds experiences of marginalization oppression and power in order to identify and transform common experiences of injustice that render the familiar a site of oppression for many In Fifty Concepts for a Critical Phenomenology leading scholars present fresh readings of classic phenomenological topics and introduce newer concepts developed by feminist theorists critical race theorists disability theorists and queer and trans theorists that capture aspects of lived experience that have traditionally been neglected By centering historically marginalized perspectives the chapters in this book breathe new life into the phenomenological tradition and reveal its ethical social and political promise This volume will be an invaluable resource for teaching and research in continental
