Prospectus For University Of Pretoria 2016:

From #RhodesMustFall Movements to #HumansMustFall Movements Artwell Nhemachena, Jairo Kangira, 2021-05-14
Might it be possible that the world is being migrated into an era where the imperial periphery will be increasingly governed through Artificial Intelligence AI and robotics designed to replace human beings Celebrated as efficient strong unfailing tireless precise and beyond corruption AI and robots are set to replace African leaders who are imperially deemed to be and consistently condemned as corrupt failed weak and inefficient But if these AI and robots are neo imperial tools and machinations the million dollar question is whether empire is not returning to recolonise the supposedly inefficient Africans via the new technologies and machinism Where Africans once celebrated their liberation war movements empire has emplaced what it calls liberation technologies designed to supposedly liberate African youths from their own states and governments led by liberation movements Where Africans once celebrated their liberation war movements empire has placed its own NGOs CSOs spewing liberal ideologies designed to ostensibly liberate African youths from their own supposedly failed and corrupt states and government leaders With African youths citizens allying not with their liberation movements but with the liberation technologies and liberal NGOs CSOs it is not surprising why African citizens oppose their states led Fast Track Land Redistribution Programmes while ironically they happily celebrate Fast Tracked COVID 19 Vaccines Posing the notion of HumansMustFall movements this book underscores ways in which empire is in a process of eternal return to 21st century Africa The book is crucial for scholars and activists in political science government studies sociology anthropology cultural studies history languages and communication studies security studies military studies and development studies

Integrating Predation Risk Across Scales: From Neurons to Ecosystems and Milliseconds to Generations

Jacqueline Jeannette Blundell, Evan Preisser, 2020-06-04 Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes, 2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues postcolonial studies and critical race theory as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the RhodesMustFall movement In this book Teresa Barnes examines universities complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education A work of interpretive social history this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education First it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education Second it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy Third it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combatted during the democratic era in South African universities Pursuing Justice in Africa Jessica Johnson, George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane, 2018-10-31 Pursuing Justice in Africa focuses on the many actors pursuing many visions of justice across the African continent their aspirations divergent practices and articulations of international and vernacular idioms of justice The essays selected by editors Jessica Johnson and George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane engage with topics at the cutting edge of contemporary scholarship across a wide range of disciplines These include activism land tenure international legal institutions and postconflict reconciliation Building on recent work in sociolegal studies that foregrounds justice over and above concepts such as human rights and legal pluralism the contributors grapple with alternative approaches to the concept of justice and its relationships with law morality and rights While the chapters are grounded in local experiences they also attend to the ways in which national and international actors and processes influence for better or worse local experiences and understandings of justice The result is a timely and original addition to scholarship on a topic of major scholarly and pragmatic interest Contributors Felicitas Becker Jonathon L Earle Patrick Hoenig Stacey Hynd Fred Nyongesa Ikanda Ngeyi Ruth Kanyongolo Anna Macdonald Bernadette Malunga Alan Msosa Benson A Mulemi Holly Porter Duncan Scott Olaf Zenker

Recalibrating teacher training in African higher education institutions Sifiso

Sibanda, Gideon (Deon) P. van Tonder, Washington T. Dudu, 2023-03-01 This book critically examines the role of governments in promoting parity during and in post pandemic education This comes from the realisation that the pandemic has deepened the crisis by depleting the meagre resources that African countries might have devoted to normative educational practices where those on the margins would have been pushed further behind while the privileged would have been further initiated into the cultural and capital flows of private schools and historically research intensive institutions of higher learning This has far reaching implications for the education of underprivileged citizens and education particularly modes and modalities of delivery has to be reimaged to subvert the challenges wrought by the pandemic This book significantly bridges the gap between the pre and post COVID 19 pandemic pedagogical practices and the erstwhile modalities that have been resilient over time The book focuses on ways to stave off pedagogical challenges that face countries as the global pandemic makes its mark

Organise or Die? Raphaël Botiveau, 2017-12-01 The story of one of the leading trade unions in South Africa the National Union of Mineworkers and its role in the struggle against white minority rule Organise or Die Democracy and Leadership in South Africa s National Union of Mineworkers NUM is the first in depth study of one of the leading trade unions in the country Founded in 1982 the trade union played a key role in the struggle against white minority rule before turning into a central protagonist of the ruling Tripartite Alliance after apartheid Deftly navigating through workerist social movement and political terrains that shape the South African labour landscape this book sheds light on the path that led to the unprecedented 2012 Marikana massacre the dissolution of the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu federation and to fractures within the African National Congress ANC itself Working with the notions of organisational agency and strategic bureaucratisation Rapha l Botiveau shows how the founding leadership of NUM built their union s structures with a view to mirror those of the multinational mining companies NUM faced Good leadership proved key to the union s success in recruiting and uniting mineworkers and NUM became an impressive school for union and political cadres producing a number of South Africa's top post-apartheid leaders. An incisive analysis of leadership styles and strategies shows how the fragile balance between an increasingly distant leadership and an increasingly militant membership gradually broke down. Botiveau provides a compelling narrative of NUM's powerful history and the legacy of its leadership. It will appeal to a broad readership including journalists, students and social sciences scholars interested in South Africa's contemporary politics and labour history.

Higher Education - Reflections From the Field - Volume 1, 2023-11-02

COVID wrought havoc on the world's economic systems. Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems. Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning. Most were not. Whether prepared or not, educators rose to the challenge. The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face-to-face environment. In fact, some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face-to-face model. As with all transitions, some things were lost while others were gained. This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century. The book is organized into four sections: The Perspectives of Higher Education, COVID as a Catalyst for Change, Embracing Online Learning as a Response to COVID, and Post-Covid: The Way Forward. It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process. These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post-COVID. Higher education has been forever changed, and higher education as it once was may never return. While many questions arise, the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic.

The Stellenbosch Mafia Pieter du Toit, 2019-07-15

About 50km outside of Cape Town lies the beautiful town of Stellenbosch, nestled against vineyards and blue mountains that stretch to the sky. Here reside some of South Africa's wealthiest individuals: all male, all Afrikaans, and all stinking rich. Johann Rupert, Jannie Mouton, Markus Jooste, and Christo Weise, to name a few. Julius Malema refers to them scathingly as The Stellenbosch Mafia, the very worst example of white monopoly capital. But who really are these mega-wealthy individuals, and what influence do they exert, not only on Stellenbosch but more broadly on South African society? Author Pieter du Toit begins by exploring the roots of Stellenbosch, one of the wealthiest towns in South Africa and arguably the cradle of Afrikanerdom. This is the birthplace of apartheid leaders, intellectuals, newspaper empires, and more. He then closely examines this club of billionaires: Who are they, and crucially, how are they connected? What network of boardroom membership alliances and family connections exist? Who are the old guard, and who are the inkommers, and what about the youngsters desperate to make their mark? He looks at the collapse of Steinhoff: what went wrong, and whether there are other companies at risk of a similar fate He examines the control these men have over cultural life including pulling the strings in South Africa rugby
