The Exporters and Importers Trade Guide (succeeding the Exporters and Importers Credit Guide) and Standard Trademark Register ,1929      On Solov'yev's View of Love and its Affinities with Proclus and Maximus the Confessor Paraskevi Zacharia,2025-09-20 This dissertation explores the concept of love in the work of Russian philosopher Vladimir Solov'yev 1853 1900 with a focus on two of his writings La Sophia 1875 1876 and Smysl lyubvi The Meaning of Love 1892 1894 The author analyzes how the concept of Sophia wisdom as a feminine divine force and the idea of All Unity a universal all encompassing unity converge in Solov'yev's deeper philosophical theological vision of love The study connects Solov'yev's ideas to those of the Neoplatonist Proclus and the Christian Church Father Maximus the Confessor The central research questions are what is the relationship between love and Sophia in Solov'yev's thought and which Neoplatonic and Patristic elements influenced his conception of love The author argues that The Meaning of Love does not explicitly mention the name Sophia but implicitly describes a Sophianic reality in which love fulfills a theurgical function This reality has three dimensions philosophical religious mystical and social Through comparisons with Proclus and Maximus the author shows how Solov'yev develops a unique integrative vision in which love leads to the unification of the individual humanity and the divine This research offers an original approach to Solov'yev's thought with particular attention to mystical experience metaphysical love and the striving for wholeness It fills a gap in the existing literature by systematically exploring the connection between love Sophia and the influence of Proclus and Maximus Paraskevi Zacharia 1983 studied Classical Languages in Athens and later Russian She obtained her PhD at Radboud University with a dissertation on Solov'yev's philosophy of love She has published on theology mysticism and Neoplatonism taught students and presented internationally She is an active member of various academic networks and received several fellowships including OIKOS the International Society for Neoplatonic Studies the International Orthodox Theological Association and the Mystical Theology Network      The Official Railway Guide ,1889      Falling in Love 101 Rev. Edward F. Caldwell,2010-12-28 One of several purposes for this memoir Falling in Love 101 is to address the issue of intimacy we have with ourselves with our own bodies and its parts and the prospect of intimacy with others This little book is also an attempt to mount a kind of sexual curriculum especially for young people and others who must wait for the marriage part of life Intimacy for many of us is still fraught with queasiness awkwardness To indulge in any kind of sexual activity for most people many people some people some of the time brings great ecstatic pleasure Of necessity we take a hard look at intercourse with all its sexual stimulation erratic behavior and other intricacies Woven together are biblical literary historical commentary on the theme and of how in some instances the specifics of Christian revelation in both the New Testament and the Church are not as helpful as we would like them to be This treatise is also the beginning of a fanciful folk tale launched by the author's own folk      In the Image of Origen David Satran,2018-05-11 The most prominent Christian theologian and exegete of the third century Origen was also an influential teacher In the famed Thanksgiving Address one of his students traditionally thought to be Gregory Thaumaturgus later bishop of Cappadocia delivered an emotionally charged account of his tutelage under Origen in Roman Palestine Although it is one of the few personal narratives by a Christian author to have survived from the period the Address is more often cited than read closely But as David Satran demonstrates this short work has much to teach us today At its center stands the question of moral formation anchored by the image of Origen himself and Satran's careful analysis of the text sheds new light on higher education in the early church as well as the intimate relationship between master and disciple
