Provocation as Leadership Maxime Fern, Michael Johnstone, 2022-12-12 To create deep change you have to disturb people or at least risk doing so Shaking people out of their comfort zones not only generates the possibility of change but also elicits new information and brings out hidden resources that people need to navigate unfamiliar waters Nevertheless provoking without antagonizing or shutting people down and tolerating their pushback are complex challenges requiring skill and will This is the first comprehensive provocation roadmap why provocation is necessary for effectively leading change the different forms of provocation action tools and frameworks and case studies illustrating how change is achieved through the sustained and careful use of provocation and disturbance with strategies and tactics for minimizing the risks involved We illustrate for example how two Australian farmers challenged centuries old farming practice to regenerate their properties and how a large American bank used the death of a revered CEO to reinvigorate the business We show how a young indigenous school principal tackled entrenched attitudes to turn a failing school around and how a national statistical service acted like a technology start up to innovate during the Covid 19 pandemic The case studies address change at the local level within organizations as well as on a national scale We finish with a synthesis of the lessons learned and a set of ideas about building people s capacity to use provocation to live learn and thrive Provocation as Leadership offers a blueprint for people who using provocation want to ignite change and help their organizations group or community break through to a better future This book provides a vehicle to see provocation in its potential for necessary disturbance to lay bare its anatomy and give access to its possibilities including how to enable provocateurs to live another day History of England George Macaulay Trevelyan, 1929 Co-creating Knowledge with Fishers: Challenges and Lessons for Integrating Fishers' Knowledge Contributions into Marine Science in Well-Developed Scientific Advisory Systems Nathalie A. British Colonisation of Northern Nigeria, 1897-1914 Mahmud Modibbo Tukur, 2016-08-15 In this densely detailed and interpretatively nuanced study Mahmud Modibbo Tukur lays bare the very foundations of the colonial state in what is now northern Nigeria This is a must read for anyone wanting to understand the foundations of contemporary Nigeria and how we came to be what we are Prof Abdul Raufu Mustapha University of Oxford UK Mahmud Modibbo Tukur s work challenges fundamental assumptions and conclusions about European colonialism in Africa especially British colonialism in northern Nigeria Whereas others have presented the thesis of a welcome reception of the imposition of British colonialism by the people the study has found physical resistance and tremendous hostility towards that imposition and contrary to the pacification and minimal violence argued by some scholars the study has exposed the violent and bloody nature of that occupation Rather than the single story of Indirect rule or abolishing slavery and lifting the burden of precolonial taxation which others have argued this book has shown that British officials were very much in evidence imposed numerous and heavier taxes collected with great efficiency and ruthlessness and ignored the health and welfare of the people in famines and health epidemics which ravaged parts of northern Nigeria during the period British economic and social policies such as blocking access to western education for the masses in most parts of northern Nigeria did not bring about development but its antithesis of retrogression and stagnation during the period under study Tukur's analysis of official colonial records and sources constitutes a significant contribution to the literature on colonialism in Africa and to understanding the complexity of the Nigerian situation today Graduated lessons on the Pentateuch William Taylor (of Battersea training coll.),1887 A Compendium of English Literature, chronologically arranged, from Sir John Mandeville to William Cowper ...
