Psychoanalysis Of Fire:

The Psychoanalysis of Fire Gaston Bachelard, 1987-01-30 Bachelard is neither a self confessed and tortured atheist like Satre nor like Chardin a heretic combining a belief in God with a proficiency in modern science But within the French context he is almost as important as they are because he has a pseudo religious force without taking a stand on religion To define him as briefly as possible he is a philosopher with a professional training in the sciences who devoted most of the second phase of his career to promoting that aspect of human nature which often seems most inimical to science the poetic imagination J G Weightman The New York Times Review of Books The Psychoanalysis of Fire Gaston Bachelard, 1968

The Psychoanalysis of Fire, by Gaston Bachelard Gaston Bachelard, 1994 The Psychoanalysis of Fire Gaston Bachelard, 1987-01-30 Bachelard is neither a self confessed and tortured atheist like Satre nor like Chardin a heretic combining a belief in God with a proficiency in modern science But within the French context he is almost as important as they are because he has a pseudo religious force without taking a stand on religion To define him as briefly as possible he is a philosopher with a professional training in the sciences who devoted most of the second phase of his career to promoting that aspect of human nature which often seems most inimical to science the poetic imagination J G Weightman The New York Times Review of Books La Psychanalyse du Feu Gaston Bachelard, 1985-01-01 Fragments of a Poetics of Fire Gaston Bachelard, 1990 Architecture and Fire Stamatis Zografos, 2019-06-12 Architecture and Fire develops a conceptual reassessment of architectural conservation through the study of the intimate relationship between architecture and fire Stamatis Zografos expands on the general agreement among many theorists that the primitive hut was erected around fire locating fire as the first memory of architecture at the very beginning of architectural evolution Following the introduction Zografos analyses the archive and the renewed interest in the study of archives through the psychoanalysis of Jacques Derrida He moves on to explore the ambivalent nature of fire employing the conflicting philosophies of Gaston Bachelard and Henri Bergson to do so before discussing architectural conservation and the relationship between listed buildings the function of archives and the preservation of memories from the past The following chapter investigates how architecture evolves by absorbing and accommodating fire while the penultimate chapter examines the critical moment of architectural evolution the destruction of buildings by fire with a focus on the tragic disaster at London's Grenfell Tower in 2017 Zografos concludes with thoughts on Freud's drive theory He argues the practice of architectural conservation is an expression of the life drive and a simultaneous repression of the death drive which suggests controlled destruction should be an integral part of the conservation agenda Architecture and Fire is founded in new interdisciplinary research navigating across the boundaries of architecture conservation archival theory classical mythology evolutionary theory thermodynamics philosophy and psychoanalysis It will be of interest to readers working in and around these disciplines Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima Makaryk, 1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline As with any body of scholarship various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it I R Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field Accessible and jargon free the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume Their work is organized into three parts In Part I forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address Part II focuses on individual theorists It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory It identifies significant complex terms places them in context and explains their origins and use Accessibility is a key feature of the work By avoiding jargon providing mini bibliographies and cross referencing throughout Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture Psychoanalysis of Fire. Translated by A.C.M.Ross Gaston BACHELARD,1964

The Seasons Of Fire David J. Strohmaier,2021-08-15 Fire is a fearsome constant in the America West As the author David J Strohmaier notes Whether we have tended a campfire along Oregon s Deschutes River in March engaged the advancing front of a Great Basin wildfire in the torrid heat of August or watched fire settle into the subdued smoldering leaf piles of October all of our lives to one degree or another are bracketed by fire In The Seasons of Fire Strohmaier effectively blends nature writing personal essay and philosophical analysis as he deliberately crosses disciplinary boundaries He discusses the moral dimensions of fire not only whether fires are good bad or indifferent phenomena but also how fire more generally understood shapes meaning for human life The consequences of discussing the moral side of fire speak directly to the contours of the human soul and to our sense of our place on the land Strohmaier a long term firefighter himself includes accurate and sometimes gut wrenching descriptions of the firefighter s experience The Critical Path and Other Writings on Critical Theory, 1963-1975 Jean O'Grady,Eva Kushner,2009-03-14 This volume which collects Northrop Frye s writings on the theory of literary criticism from the middle period of his career includes one of Frye s own favourites The Critical Path 1971 A highly important marker of Frye s career The Critical Path openly addresses topics that he had previously been reluctant to discuss as fully including the importance of literature to society the responsibilities of critics and the deeper rationales for studying literature Filled with insightful texts that indicate his transition from literary critic to a theorist of language myth and human culture this edition helps to illuminate many of the ideas and arguments that would appear later in The Great Code and Words with Power Accompanied by the rigorous scholarship for which the series is renowned this is another valuable contribution to literary criticism and theory Gaston Bachelard, Revised and Updated Roch C.

Smith,2016-06-03 Gaston Bachelard one of twentieth century France s most original thinkers is known by English language readers primarily as the author of The Poetics of Space and several other books on the imagination but he made significant contributions to the philosophy and history of science In this book Roch C Smith provides a comprehensive introduction to Bachelard s work demonstrating how his writings on the literary imagination can be better understood in the context of his exploration of how knowledge works in science After an overview of Bachelard s writings on the scientific mind as it was transformed by relativity quantum physics and modern chemistry Smith examines Bachelard s works on the imagination in light of particular intellectual values Bachelard derived from science His trajectory from science to a specifically literary imagination is traced by recognizing his concern with what science teaches about how we know and his increasing preoccupation with questions of being when dealing with poetic imagery Smith also explores the material and dynamic imagination associated with the four elements fire water air and earth and the phenomenology of creative imagination in Bachelard s Poetics of Space his Poetics of Reverie and in the fragments of Poetics of Fire Literary Illumination

Richard Leahy,2018-08-15 An Original Research Area Little has been written on the connections between artificial light and literature in this period Substantial Textual Coverage A wide range of literature is analysed in this manuscript which makes it beneficial to new or experienced scholars Some more canonical texts are studied and some more obscure authors and texts The Holistic Approach This manuscript tackles the entire history of nineteenth century illumination it is an excellent primer for those interested in the field and an example of what can be done within it Sacred Channels Erich Hörl,2025-10-01

Erich H rl s Sacred Channels is an original take on the history of communication theory and the cultural imaginary of communication understood through the notions of the sacred and the primitive H rl offers insight into the shared ground of anthropology and media theory in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and presents an archeology of the philosophy of technology that underpins contemporary culture This singular and unique project focuses on the ethnological disciplines and their phantasmatic imaginations of a prealphabetical realm of the sacred and the primitive but reads them in the context of media cultural questions as epistemic unconscious and as projections of the emerging postalphabetical condition Drawing inspiration from work by the likes of Friedrich Kittler H rl s understanding of cybernetics in the post World War II interdisciplinary field informs a rich analysis that is of interest to media scholars and to anyone seeking to understand the historical and theoretical underpinnings of the humanities in the age of technical media Primitive Thinking Nicola

Gess,2022-09-06 This book examines the discourse on primitive thinking in early twentieth century Germany It explores texts from the social sciences writings on art and language and most centrally literary works by Robert Musil Walter Benjamin Gottfried Benn and Robert M ller focusing on three figurations of alterity prominent in European primitivism indigenous cultures children and the mentally ill Materiality and Space Nathalie Mitev,Francois-Xavier de Vaujany,2013-08-09

Materiality and Space focuses on how organizations and managing are bound with the material forms and spaces through which humans act and interact at work It concentrates on organizational practices and pulls together three separate domains that are rarely looked at together sociomateriality sociology of space and social studies of technology The contributions draw on and combine several of these domains and propose analyses of spaces and materiality in a range of organizational practices such as collaborative workspaces media work urban management e learning environments managerial control mobile lives institutional routines and professional identity Theoretical insights are also developed by Pickering on the material world Lyytinen on affordance Lorino on architecture and Introna on sociomaterial assemblages in order to delve further into conceptualizing materiality in organizations

Understanding Nature Hub Zwart, 2008-01-29 This summons clearly resonates with the archetypal image associated with water as a basic element discussed in Chapter 2 water as the element of freedom of mobility of widening one's horizon Although Nietzsche himself refrained from doing what he summoned others to do scientists like Darwin and novelists like Melville actually went to sea Darwin although regarded by Nietzsche as an arid and mediocre mind exposed himself to the experience of a long term trans oceanic voyage in the course of which he did discover new worlds new justifications new moral watchwords even struggle for life that were to have a tremendous impact on science philosophy and even culture at large Other perspectives are present in Moby Dick as well such as the theologian's one depicting the whale as the biblical Leviathan and the ocean as that part of the world where the great flood never abated Indeed the interpretation of marine phenomena in Biblical terms is more or less omnipresent in the novel and also resounds in the views and language of the philosophical sailor and story teller Ishmael But what about the novelist's whale Actually there is not one novelist's whale Ishmael the narrator unmistakably sides with the whaler's point of view but Melville the author is interested in and tries to do justice to a plurality of voices

Topophilia Yi-fu Tuan, 1990 Topophilia and Topophobia offers timely reflections on the human habitat in the 20th century The expression of topophilia and topophobia belong to our time an ambivalence between the love and aversion for a place has been a recurrent paradox in human history

Atlas of Petromodernity Alexander Klose, Benjamin Steininger, 2024-07-05 The Atlas of Petromodernity is many things in one historical and geographical non fiction cultural theory essay and picture book In forty four short essays inspired by an equal amount of pictorial findings Klose and Steininger develop a technical geographical political and speculative panorama of the declining era of petroleum modernity The authors stroll through Baku Rotterdam and Louisiana into Manchuria and through the Vienna Basin They read Bertolt Brecht technical manuals and petroculture theory and they listen to Neil Young They go to the moon through refineries and over highways emptied by the COVID 19 pandemic They confront petrochemistry with petromelancholy catalysis with catharsis cosmos with cosmetics The Atlas of Petromodernity tackles the contradictory ambivalences of a substance that has been vital for our epoch and whose roles and meanings need to be understood in order to be able to leave this epoch behind

The Poetics of Psychoanalysis Mary Jacobus, 2005-12-22 The Poetics of Psychoanalysis In the Wake of Klein explores the literary aspects of the twentieth century psychoanalytic tradition that has come to be known as British Object Relations psychoanalysis Focusing on Melanie Klein's legacy to psychoanalysis between the 1930s and 1970s it deals with major figures such as Riviere Isaacs Winnicott Milner and Bion as well as Klein's contemporary Ella Sharpe Mary Jacobus breaks new ground by giving a central place to the literary and aesthetic concerns of the British Object Relations tradition Paying close attention to writing that is often side lined by literary critics and theorists she makes fruitful connections with particular works of literature and art along with pressing contemporary issues The three sections focus on the transitions mediations and transformations that took place in British Object Relations psychoanalysis as Klein's ideas were developed and transformed Situating Kleinian thought in relation to later developments and differences while making it accessible to non psychoanalytic readers The Poetics of Psychoanalysis argues against the separation of British and continental traditions and for the continuing links between psychoanalysis and aesthetics Rather than applying psychoanalytic ideas to literature and aesthetics the book traces the British Object Relations tradition as a form of proto modernist discourse in its own right Linked by a common thread of ideas and structured to reflect a roughly chronological trajectory individual chapters can also be read as free standing critical essays Aimed at literary readers this book will also be of interest to psychoanalytic practitioners and cultural theorists
