Showing and Telling: Film heritage institutes and their performance of public accountability Nico de Klerk, 2017-02-15 Showing and Telling is the first academic work to explore how publicly funded film heritage institutes account for their mandate in their public activities It does that by inspecting and evaluating public presentations and visitor information about these presentations The research was done by juxtaposing two complementary approaches The first is grounded in the author's experience as a collection researcher and curator and makes a case for the richness of archival objects usually ignored for their lack of aesthetic qualities The second is a survey of the public activities of 24 institutes worldwide based on their websites in February 2014 the latter constitutes a unique source This original work uncovers the disconnect between the curatorial activities of these institutes and their missions A central finding is that publicly funded film heritage institutes give their public an inadequate sense of cinema history By and large they offer a mainstream oriented repertoire of presentations overwhelmingly consisting of feature fiction they show a disproportionate amount of recent and new works often through commercial distribution their screenings consist of an unexplained melee of technological formats sometimes substandard and their presentations monotonously frame film as art although their professed aesthetics are mostly of a cinephile nature and rest on received opinion Specific materials early cinema in particular and specialist knowledge both historical and methodological are largely restricted to their network of peer communities Wholesome transfer of full knowledge in word and image to the public is not a major concern Showing and Telling concludes with recommendations for curatorial activities Firstly with a conceptual apparatus that allows a more complete understanding of film heritage and its histories Secondly with a plea for rethinking the institutes gatekeeper function and for developing more varied imaginative and informative public presentations both on site and online that reflect

Helen Goldstein,2019-08-25 The Earth Walkers is a story of the relationship of horses humans and planet earth It is a simple story that over time we as humans have complicated Once all three lived in harmony but humans viewed this as primitive savage or wild And so we began to make our existence together more civilized In our interference we began to lose respect for our planet and all that lived upon it including ourselves One of the three though remained steadfast throughout the story Horses except in their physical appearance have neither changed nor tried to change anything just being themselves constantly at our sides Tracing the story of the relationship from the beginning of time the unique bond between humans and horses is explored through different civilizations and cultures up to present day It tracks the journey of the two species and the effect they had on earth as they walked around it It also tells the story of how when in times of disruption chaos and imbalance earth has spoken to us giving us signs and horses have always been there guiding us to a path back home It is a path to a home on earth where all can live in harmony and at peace a path that we will hopefully choose to walk together once again A Risky Business Crime in the Movies John Howard Reid,2015-08-02 Crime is not exactly a risky business for movie makers In fact this category has always been high on Hollywood s agenda and there are very few crime films that have actually lost money Crime and film noir make such a fascinating subject that although the author set out to detail 150 of his favorite films he has actually reviewed 185 125 of these movies are also supplied with their exhaustive credit details as well as copyright and other release information plus a brief synopsis Fortunately many of these movies both justly famous and even the unjustly neglected are now available on DVD Many are also frequently presented on pay TV To-day's Cinema News and Property Gazette ,1915 Super 8 Filmmaker ,1979 Popular Mechanics ,1964-08 Popular Mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world Whether it s practical DIY home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science PM is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle Billboard Music Week ,1949-03
