Beard Award winning chef Jeremiah Tower this is the Le Cordon Bleu founder's classic cookbook and guide to French cuisine. In the nineteenth century Henri Paul Pellaprat founded Le Cordon Bleu. In the twentieth century his landmark cookbook L'Art Culinaire Moderne was translated into English and acclaimed as the most comprehensive and authoritative book on French cooking and gastronomy ever written. This complete revision and updating by James Beard Award winning chef Jeremiah Tower is a reference cookbook that continues to shape great chefs and great cooking in the twenty-first century. Pellaprat was the first chef to give the vast subject of French cuisine a logical and comprehensive underpinning by offering a complete education in the four basic subdivisions of French cooking: la haute cuisine, la cuisine bourgeoise, la cuisine régionale and la cuisine impromptue, the inspired cooking that creates memorable dishes with easily available ingredients. Included are 2,000 recipes covering every aspect of gastronomy from sauces, soups, fish, grillades and salads to soufflés, cakes and traditional French desserts. This new edition includes more than 600 easy-to-follow techniques and time-saving tips and a complete lexicon of French cooking terms. Unparalleled in its scope and the authenticity of its information, The Great Book of French Cuisine remains a definitive work, the perfect reference for both amateurs and professional chefs to be treasured and consulted throughout a lifetime of cooking.

Le Cordon Bleu at Home Le Cordon Bleu, 1991-10-16. Here is the first English language cookbook from the Parisian cooking school whose very name epitomizes excellence. Le Cordon Bleu at Home provides a solid understanding of the philosophy and skills taught for nearly a century in the school's nine-month Classic Cycle course. Moving through three stages from basic to advanced techniques, this in-depth approach to classical French cuisine offers a series of easy-to-follow menus and recipes that correspond to classes at the school. Nearly three hundred beautiful color photographs depict finished dishes, serving ideas and cooking techniques at each stage through completion. Learning to cook means mastering the fundamentals. In Part One, Getting Started, you'll learn how to roast, poach, fry, sauté, braise and stew. You'll learn which cuts of meat are most appropriate for a dish, which utensils to use and how to use them and preliminary preparations that simplify tasks. The menus focus on basic dishes from roast chicken and lamb to pan-fried sole, apple fritters and poached fruit. Part Two, Perfecting Skills, takes you through pastry making and introduces such preparations as pâtés, soufflés, consommés and more. This is where you'll find such glorious dishes as Daube d'Agneau Avignonnaise, braised lamb cooked as it is in Avignon; Tournedos Baltimore, tenderloin steaks with Chateaubriand sauce; and Pilaf de Volaille à la Turque, Turkish style pilaf with zucchini and oranges, created by Henri Paul Pellaprat, one of the school's most famous instructors. Ultimately, no one truly finishes learning; the best chefs endlessly hone their skills. For advanced cooks, Part Three, Finishing Touches, emphasizes the creative aspect of cooking. Le Cordon Bleu is the crême de la crême of cooking schools, and this is an indispensable volume for everyone interested in learning about the ageless art of French cooking. Combining time-honored traditions with the latest, most sophisticated methods and a variety of recipes ranging from standard at-home fare to classic regional and modern dishes, this is the ultimate state-of-the-art book on French cuisine.
