

Sample College Admissions Essays

We have prepared this handout of actual essays written by current Harvard students who attended secondary schools in the UK (with names changed for anonymity) in order to provide some guidance to schools and applicants. Because the university admissions processes in the US and the UK are markedly different, we have received requests for some sample essays and tips for writing them and hope they will be helpful.

Here is the official description of the personal essay requirement:

Please write an essay (250 words minimum) on a topic of your choice or on one of the options listed below. This personal essay helps us become acquainted with you as a person and student, apart from courses, grades, test scores, and other objective data. It will also demonstrate your ability to organize your thoughts and express yourself.

1. Evaluate a significant experience, achievement, risk you have taken, or ethical dilemma you have faced and its impact on you.
2. Discuss some issue of personal, local, national, or international concern and its importance to you.
3. Indicate a person who has had a significant influence on you, and describe that influence.
4. Describe a character in fiction, a historical figure, or a creative work (as in art, music, science, etc.) that has had an influence on you, and explain that influence.
5. A range of academic interests, personal perspectives, and life experiences adds much to the educational mix. Given your personal background, describe an experience that illustrates what you would bring to the diversity in a college community, or an encounter that demonstrated the importance of diversity to you.
6. Topic of your choice.

Your essay for a US university might be the same one you would write for the UCAS system, but perhaps not. We are interested in your academic successes and future plans, but also want to understand what makes you tick as a person. What are your hopes, dreams and fears?

Our advice is to think of two or three possible topics, write a quick first draft of each essay and then show them to your best friend, mother, teacher or anyone who knows you well. Ask that person if your voice and personality come through in the essays and which one sounds the most like you. Then take that essay and polish it off!

As you will see from the following sample essays, these students have written about learning to ride a bike, culture shock at coming to the UK, music, public service, and a favourite book. What will you write about?

American Academic Cultures Paul H. Mattingly, 2017-11-23 At a time when American higher education seems ever more to be reflecting on its purpose and potential we are more inclined than ever to look to its history for context and inspiration But that history only helps Paul H Mattingly argues if it s seen as something more than a linear progress through time With American Academic Cultures he offers a different type of history of American higher learning showing how its current state is the product of different varied generational cultures each grounded in its own moment in time and driven by historically distinct values that generated specific problems and responses Mattingly sketches out seven broad generational cultures evangelical Jeffersonian republican nondenominational industrially driven progressively pragmatic internationally minded and the current corporate model What we see through his close analysis of each of these cultures in their historical moments is that the politics of higher education both inside and outside institutions are ultimately driven by the dominant culture of the time By looking at the history of higher education in this new way Mattingly opens our eyes to our own moment and the part its culture plays in generating its politics and promise

Critical Americans Leslie Butler, 2009-01-05 In this intellectual history of American liberalism during the second half of the nineteenth century Leslie Butler examines a group of nationally prominent and internationally oriented writers who sustained an American tradition of self consciously progressive and cosmopolitan reform

She addresses how these men established a critical perspective on American racism materialism and jingoism in the decades between the 1850s and the 1890s while she recaptures their insistence on the ability of ordinary citizens to work toward their limitless potential as intelligent and moral human beings At the core of Butler s study are the writers George William Curtis Thomas Wentworth Higginson James Russell Lowell and Charles Eliot Norton a quartet of friends who would together define the humane liberalism of America s late Victorian middle class In creative engagement with such British intellectuals as John Stuart Mill Thomas Carlyle Matthew Arnold Leslie Stephen John Ruskin James Bryce and Goldwin Smith these critical Americans articulated political ideals and cultural standards to suit the burgeoning mass democracy the Civil War had created This transatlantic framework informed their notions of educative citizenship print based democratic politics critically informed cultural dissemination and a temperate deliberative foreign policy Butler argues that a careful reexamination of these strands of late nineteenth century liberalism can help enrich a revitalized liberal tradition at the outset of the twenty first century
