Performance Evaluation: Current Practice and Directions for Improvement I. Carl Candoli, Karen Cullen, D.L.

Stufflebeam, 2012-12-06 Every school district needs a system of sound superintendent performance evaluation. School district superintendents are and must be accountable to their school boards, communities, faculties, and students for delivering effective educational leadership. To assure that they are evaluated fairly, competently, and functionally, superintendents need to help their school boards plan and implement evaluation systems that adhere to the evaluation standards. Superintendent Performance Evaluation outlines some of the problems and deficiencies in current evaluation practice and offers professionally based leads for strengthening or replacing superintendent performance evaluation systems. This book focuses on the on-the-job performance of school district superintendents as they implement school board policy. The decision to focus on performance evaluation reflects the importance of this kind of evaluation in the move to raise educational standards and improve educational accountability. Boards and superintendents are advised to make superintendent performance evaluation an integral part of the district's larger system for evaluating district needs, plans, processes, and accomplishments. Global Practices and Training in Applied Sport, Exercise, and Performance Psychology J. Gualberto Cremades, Lauren S.

Tashman, 2016-05-20 Global Practices and Training in Applied Sport Exercise and Performance Psychology offers case analysis as a vehicle to address issues and experiences in the application of sport exercise and performance psychology. SEPP and the supervision training of individuals to become professionals in the field. A follow-up to Becoming a Sport Exercise and Performance Psychology Professional 2014, this book features a discussion of real-world case examples which highlight various aspects of professional practice as well as supervision and training. Professionals from around the world, including the United States and Canada, Europe, Asia, Africa, and Australia, share diverse experiences providing a uniquely in-depth global perspective. The case studies contained in the book were selected to provide insight into specific elements of applied practice and supervision training through a global lens, as well as demonstrate the value of incorporating case analysis and reflection into one's training and continued professional development. Case analysis is an essential part of learning and instruction. Beyond educating the reader about theories and research on related topics in the field, case analysis allows for more complex levels of learning, including analysis, synthesis, and evaluation of diverse scenarios. In Part I of this book, the cases focus on applied SEPP practice. Part II is comprised of cases that focus on training and supervision. This book is essential reading for graduate students and neophyte professionals in the field for whom it is critical to learn how to effectively apply knowledge to real-world sport exercise and performance psychology scenarios. In addition, the book is a useful resource for seasoned and expert practitioners and supervisors who can use case analysis as a means of continuing their professional development.
