

Voting and Elections

Three Elementary Principles

1. In the limited franchise, the electorates are voters subject to age
2. Universal suffrage includes the fullest franchise in government
3. General suffrage the legally enfranchised electorate enjoy individualised modes of electing their

Three Intermediate Principles

- There are 3 ways a candidate can be proposed by the public:
1. Self-nomination Accepted with funds for the office candidate's public standing electoral member/constituents approve the bid, the self-nomination process has been used 2. The caucus Essentially a process involving all local electors, the process of proposing/bidder left open later in the state 3. The Convention Involved local electors who the former constituents/bidder were selected to represent the people's wishes Party headquarters found easy to manipulate the process however, another convention-type was set in place not by the only voters

Definition

- more direct is representative of voters Accepted as the best by government parties
- (A minority party) candidate not usually required to have local representation
