

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space weapons and launch them?	That U.S. suspend the prohibition of launching nuclear weapons.	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the launch and retrieval of satellites?	They would certainly gain useful information about our world. They would also learn military secrets.	They might develop better knowledge about the Soviet Union and its military strength, planned armaments, and political system. They would also know the capabilities of Soviet satellites.
3. Would anyone disagree with this?	Not really.	Some might be uneasy about our dependence on the Soviets.
4. Would the U.S. achieve any other goals by making this deal?	Yes. The government could improve its relations with certain countries.	The American public was concerned we would not take advantage of the Soviets.

2. Suppose the agreement simply set up the program, without these other provisions. Would it still bring about the advantages you listed?

Discuss. Explain. What provisions do you think are needed?

What would it accomplish that the agreement did not?
