Michael Akinpelu, Tunde Ajiboye, 2025-10-02 This book highlights the current trends and challenges of French learning in Nigeria's formal education system Edited by Michael Akinpelu and Tunde Ajiboye French Language Politics and Education in Nigeria Building Human Capital and a Multilingual Nation discusses the teaching learning of French in Nigeria and its roles in building human capital and fostering meaningful relationships with Francophone nations in the sub region Presenting varying approaches contributors postulate a renewal of pedagogical approaches to the teaching of French as a foreign language while others call on government authorities to promote and implement language policies in favor of French that take into account the realistic needs of the country Comprised of three parts part I examines the relationship between language policies and the texture of French educational planning in Nigeria Part II reflects on policy enunciations and interpretations that affect both the present and future as well as the challenges that French teaching and learning in the Nigerian educational system Part III explores policy decisions on French language education Through detailed analysis and interview data Akinpelu Ajiboye and the contributors argue for renewed approaches to French language studies in Nigeria from practical sociolinguistic pressures

Political science in motion Ramona Coman, Jean-Frédéric Morin, 2019-08-06 What are the main trends in contemporary political science research This book examines recent developments in political science research What are the new influences to which the discipline opens itself up Is political science research converging towards a single model or splitting into different streams What are the new challenges at the beginning of the 21st century This collection of essays discusses three interrelated topics the relationship between political science and the problems of politics the relationship between political science and other fields of research and the transformation of the profession EXTRACT The past the present and the future of political science have always been a topic of inquiry for political scientists This collection of essays is not the first to explore the evolution of the discipline Since its inception scholars of politics of all persuasions have re produced the story of the field as a discipline and as a profession Farr et al 1990 598 Blondiaux 1997 10 Gunnell 2002 339 Dryzek 2002 2006 They have explored the discipline's relation with its social and political environment they have questioned its epistemological and ontological specificities and more recently they have documented its professional standards codes and practices As the discipline expands in different parts of the world the attention devoted to its evolution and development has increased Political science is a recognized object of study and state of the discipline studies are flourishing This book seeks to contribute to these recent debates about the evolution of the discipline by exploring three interrelated themes namely 1 the discipline's co evolution with politics 2 its changing relations with sister disciplines 3 and the transformation of its practices for knowledge production and dissemination We argue in this volume that these topics are fundamental as they directly address the core identity of political science ABOUT THIS BOOK There is very little literature on academic journals and how they function or what they achieve and Political Science in Motion is to be welcomed as a step towards filling that gap It is well edited as is evident from the cross references between chapters It answers some of the questions that one might want to ask while others remain unanswered Wyn Grant The London School of Economics and Political Science Review of books

Understanding Securitisation Theory Thierry Balzacq, 2010-09-13 This volume aims to provide a new framework for the analysis of securitization processes increasing our understanding of how security issues emerge evolve and dissolve Securitisation theory has become one of the key components of security studies and IR courses in recent years and this book represents the first attempt to provide an integrated and rigorous overview of securitization practices within a coherent framework To do so it organizes securitization around three core assumptions which make the theory applicable to empirical studies the centrality of audience the co dependency of agency and context and the structuring force of the dispositif These assumptions are then investigated through discourse analysis process tracing ethnographic research and content analysis and discussed in relation to extensive case studies This innovative new book will be of much interest to students of securitisation and critical security studies as well as IR theory and sociology Thierry Balzacq is holder of the Tocqueville Chair on Security Policies and Professor at the University of Namur He is Research Director at the University of Louvain and Associate Researcher at the Centre for European Studies at Sciences Po Paris

Putting security governance to the test Hans-Georg Ehrhart, Hendrik Hegemann, Martin Kahl, 2017-10-02 Recent debates in security policy have highlighted trends towards fragmentation informalisation and privatisation in the diverse field of security policy with its increasingly transnational security risks In this context the concept of security governance has risen to prominence and has inspired much valuable research Yet there are not only very different conceptual understandings of security governance there is also a lack of clarity regarding its empirical manifestations and normative connotations After a decade of research this book therefore puts security governance to the test and scrutinises its analytical and political pitfalls and potentials It reviews the concept of security governance and identifies central conceptual empirical and normative challenges that need to be addressed Moreover this book scrutinises critical examples of security governance from EU security policy as well as in a comparative regional perspective Case studies include EU efforts to counter piracy off the coast of Somalia combat terrorism inside European societies and protect critical infrastructures This book was originally published as a special issue of European Security

Critical Approaches to Security Laura J. Shepherd, 2013-01-03 Focusing on critical approaches to security this new textbook offers readers both an overview of the key theoretical perspectives and a variety of methodological techniques With a careful explication of core concepts in each chapter and an introduction that traces the development of critical approaches to security this textbook will encourage all those who engage with it to develop a curiosity about the study and practices of security politics Challenging the assumptions of conventional theories and approaches unsettling that which was previously taken for granted these are among the ways in which such a curiosity works Through its attention to the fact that and the ways in which security matters in global politics this work will both pioneer new ways of studying security and acknowledge the noteworthy scholarship without which it could not have been thought This textbook will be essential reading to advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students of critical security studies and highly recommended to students of traditional security studies International Relations and Politics International Collaboration in Ocean Science and Governance Carolijn van Noort, 2025-04-10 This book introduces a novel model to explain how the co design and co delivery of ocean science knowledge and solutions is influenced by ocean stakeholders with asymmetric power and resources policy incentives and ocean conflict ocean narratives different knowledge systems security concerns principles formal and informal rules and communication competences Using the International Collaboration in Ocean Science model as a basis the book advances with three lines of inquiry ontological security of ocean science participants the Ocean Decade and human well being and strategic narratives about international collaboration in ocean science Through these Carolijn van Noort shows the enabling and constraining conditions of co creating ocean knowledge and solutions Theoretically novel the book provides a compelling framework for scholars to study ocean science collaboration Digital Transformation, Strategic Resilience, Cyber Security and Risk Management Simon Grima, Eleftherios I. Salter, Can E. Mutlu, 2013-04-03 This new textbook surveys new and emergent methods for doing research in critical security studies thereby filling a large gap in the literature of this emerging field New or critical security studies is growing as a field but still lacks a clear methodology the diverse range of the main foci of study culture practices language or bodies means that there is little coherence or conversation between these four schools or approaches In this ground breaking collection of fresh and emergent voices new methods in critical security studies are explored from multiple perspectives providing practical examples of successful research design and methodologies Drawing upon their own experiences and projects thirty three authors address the following turns over the course of six comprehensive sections Part I Research Design Part II The Ethnographic Turn Part III The Practice Turn Part IV The Discursive Turn Part V The Corporeal Turn Part VI The Material Turn This book will be essential reading for upper level students and researchers in the field of critical security studies and of much interest to students of sociology ethnography and IR Energy Security for the EU in the 21st Century José María Marín Quemada, Javier García-Verdugo, Gonzalo Escribano, 2012-03-12 Recent developments like the rising trend in crude oil price the international economic crisis the civil revolts in Northern Africa and the Middle East the nuclear threat in Japan after the tsunami the oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico and the economic growth of emerging countries like China and India have a direct relation to the security of energy supply anywhere in the world This book provides a comprehensive analysis of energy risks energy scenarios and energy policies with special reference to the European Union and its member states emphasizing the economic and geopolitical dimensions of energy security The book assesses both quantitatively and qualitatively the socioeconomic and political risks related to the European energy supply together with the EU's energy relations with other countries Two innovative indicators have been developed to estimate geopolitical energy risks and energy related relations with other countries The book also examines the process of convergence of member states energy security policies the path towards a common European energy policy and the process of Europeanization projected towards the energy corridors through which the EU receive energy imports In addition alternative strategic scenarios related to energy risk are assessed Finally guidelines for the EU's energy policy and new strategies using energy corridors are suggested in order to maximize EU's energy security The book should be of interest to students and researchers across a wide range of subjects including energy economics and policy energy and foreign policy in the EU energy policies in EU member states and several aspects related to international political economy

Commercialising Security in Europe Anna Leander, 2013-06-26 This book examines the political consequences of European security commercialisation through increased reliance on private military and security companies PMSCs The role of commercial security in the domestic setting in Europe is widely acknowledged after all the biggest private security company globally G4S Group has its roots in Scandinavia However the use of commercial security contracting by European states for military purposes in international settings is mostly held to be marginal This book examines the implications of commercialisation for the peace and reconciliations strategies of European states focussing specifically on European contracting in Afghanistan Drawing upon examples from Scandinavia Central Europe and Continental Europe each chapter considers three key factors the national contexts that give security contracting in Afghanistan its meaning the national contracting practices the political consequences for the operation in Afghanistan This book will be of much interest to students of critical security studies global governance peace and conflict studies European politics and IR in general

Security Relations between China and the European Union Emil J. Kirchner, Thomas Christiansen, Han Dorussen, 2016-09-29 This book explores EU China security cooperation across a range of key issues Understanding Energy Security in Central and Eastern Europe Wojciech Ostrowski, Eamonn Butler, 2018-04-09 The purpose of this book is to move beyond the approach which views energy as a purely geopolitical tool of the Russian state and assumes a one size fits all approach to energy security in Central and Eastern Europe CEE It argues that in order to fully understand Russian involvement in the regional energy complex the CEE Russian energy relationship should be analysed in the context of the political and economic transitions that Russia and the CEE states underwent The chapters on individual countries in the book demonstrate that although Russia has and will continue to play a substantial role in the CEE energy sector the scope of its possible influence has been overstated International Political Economy Nicola Phillips,Catherine Weaver,2010-10-04 Essential reading for anyone interested in the cutting edge debates in contemporary international political economy IPE this book features contributions from the most influential scholars in the field from North America Canada and the UK who debate the most important issues in IPE Coping with Global Environmental Change, Disasters and Security Hans Günter Brauch,Úrsula Oswald Spring,Czeslaw Mesjasz,John Grin,Patricia Kameri-Mbote,Béchir Chourou,Pál Dunay,Joern Birkmann,2011-02-03 Coping with Global Environmental Change Disasters and Security Threats Challenges Vulnerabilities and Risks reviews conceptual debates and case studies focusing on disasters and security threats challenges vulnerabilities and risks in Europe the Mediterranean and other regions It discusses social science concepts of vulnerability and risks global regional and national security challenges global warming floods desertification and drought as environmental security challenges water and food security challenges and vulnerabilities vulnerability mapping of environmental security challenges and risks contributions of remote sensing to the recognition of security risks mainstreaming early warning of conflicts and hazards and provides conceptual and policy conclusions 21st Century Political Science: A Reference Handbook John T Ishiyama,Marijke Breuning,2011 Offering full coverage of major subthemes and subfields within political science this reference handbook includes entries on topics from theory and methodology to international relations and institutions Contemporary Security Analysis and Copenhagen Peace Research ,
