

Preparing A Self-Introduction For An Interview

The following information is offered to assist you prepare for your Academic Decathlon interview. Prepared well, your self-introduction is your key to interview success because it helps to create that all important first impression, and helps you to build the rapport with the judges conducting your interview.

An Academic Decathlon self-introduction should not exceed 30 seconds.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS ARE IMPORTANT

In an interview, first impressions are very important. The first thing the interviewer learns about you, you teach him or her by how you introduce yourself. The interview is your chance to communicate your ability and skills directly to the judges. Because interviewing is a skill, anyone can learn to interview effectively. The key to a successful interview is preparation and careful listening.

The first opinion an interview makes is going to be based on how you look. Make sure your hair is neat – get a haircut if possible. Dress in conservative business attire. All clothes should be neat, clean and pressed. Avoid excessive jewelry, makeup, cologne or perfume. It's important to dress professionally for your interview. You'll want that first impression to be not just a good one, but, a great one. A decathlete dressed professionally is going to make a better impression than the decathlete dressed in scruffy jeans and a t-shirt.

Be very assured and self-confident when entering the room. Be willing or ready to offer a handshake and be sure that it is firm and demonstrates confidence. Be sure to remember the names of the judges interviewing you. The interview will progress on better terms if you are able to respond using the name of the person you are speaking with. Do not assume that there is a particular place for you; wait until the judge motions to where you are to sit. Once seated and introductions are over, the interview is ready to begin.

DURING THE INTERVIEW

During the interview, sit up straight in the chair or lean forward slightly and DO NOT slouch! Establish yourself as a self-confident and assertive person without being confrontational, brash or aggressive. Remember to be yourself but to also present a professional, polished version of yourself.

Answer interview questions directly. Be confident without being arrogant. At the same time, admit to your weaknesses if they are brought up, but do not bring them up. Instead, concentrate on your strengths. Demonstrate energy, determination, enthusiasm, motivation and passion for your work.

PREPARING A SELF-INTRODUCTION

In preparing your self-introduction, ask yourself this question: "What do I want the judges to know about me? What makes me unique?"
