Recollections of a New England Bride and of a Southern Matron Caroline Howard Gilman, 2025-05-22

Recollections of a New England Bride and of a Southern Matron offers a captivating glimpse into the lives of women in 19th century America Through personal anecdotes and keen observations Caroline Howard Gilman contrasts the experiences of a newlywed in New England with those of a matron in the South This work provides invaluable insights into the social customs domestic expectations and regional differences that shaped women's roles during this transformative period Gilman's narrative combines personal reflections with broader social commentary making it a valuable resource for understanding the nuances of American society and the evolving roles of women in the antebellum era A compelling read for anyone interested in women's history social history and the cultural landscape of 19th century America This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Recollections of a Southern Matron and a New England

Bride Caroline Howard Gilman, 1859 Recollections of a Southern Matron Caroline Howard Gilman, 1838 Recollections of a Southern Matron and a New England Bride Caroline Gilman, 2025-08-21 Reprint of the original first published in 1859 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Recollections of a New England Bride and of a Southern Matron Caroline Howard Gilman, 1852 Fictionalized autobiographical account of the habits and manners of Southerners The preface to the book reads Every part except the love passages is founded in events of actual occurrence Caroline Howard was born in Boston in 1794 After both parents died Caroline went to live with relatives in various towns across Massachusetts She married Reverend Samuel Gilman in 1819 and the newlyweds moved to Charleston South Carolina where Mr Gilman had accepted the pastorate of the Unitarian Church In 1832 Caroline Gilman began publishing the Rose Bud a children s magazine The Rose Bud grew to national prominence and soon became an adult publication renamed the Southern Rose which included works by prominent authors such as Harriet Martineau and Nathaniel Hawthorne In addition to her work as an editor she authored novels poetry and memoirs She died in Washington D C in 1888 Recollections of a Southern Matron 1836 is a companion to Gilman s earlier novel Recollections of a Housekeeper 1835 In each work Gilman fictionalizes her observations about a region s culture and women s daily life Gilman insists Recollections of a Southern Matron is based on fact with the exception of the love story between Anna and Arthur Each chapter focuses on some important aspect of southern family life the slaves faithfulness white perceptions of slave superstitions southern education religion and funerals and the courtship of southern gentry Recollections of a Southern Matron ,1998 Recollections of a Southern Matron and a New England Bride Caroline Howard Gilman,1867

Recollections of a Southern Matron Caroline Gilman,2020-05-28 There have been many editions of this popular 1838 work written by a Northern woman who lived for many years in Charleston S C Technically it is a fiction book because of her apocryphal story line She relies heavily however upon her real life experiences in the American South Written in first person narration with the concentration on domestic life on a Southern plantation Gilman highlights the serenity of the slaves who were always called servants But this is not her main theme She does not get into heated politics of abolition the rights of man etc but probes more into the day to day interpersonal relations between master and servant and their inter dependence upon one another The book is a cultural report of what is not of what ought to be She neither condemns nor lauds Southern domestic life but presents a fictionalized story line based on her experiences Her work has long been valued for the spirit and fidelity with which she has painted rural and home life The book shows habits of keen observation and an artist like power of grouping and character development A variety of human emotions are stirred including laughter and tears as such events as births weddings and funerals are covered Her writing has stood the test of time and many people have enjoyed her books and poetry RECOLLECTIONS OF A SOUTHERN MATRON CAROLINE.
