Mr. Steve Ray
2037 Hunters Creek Drive
Ypsilanti MI 48198

Dear Steve,

I just want to thank you for coming to Traverse City to speak to the Martinus of Northern Michigan group once again this year.

Your talk, "Swimming Upstream", provides motivation for each of us to "be bold and show our Christianity." Your presentation reflecting on the frequent martyrdom prevalent in early Christianity, and its importance in serving as the seed of the early Church, reminds us that we too are called to be authentic Catholic witnesses living counter cultural to the morals of the post-Christian pagan society we live in today.

You are an inspiring speaker. Thank you for saying "Yes" to God's call by devoting your life to help others discover the fullness of Christianity found only in the Catholic Church and to help Catholics become better leaders in their families, careers and in society.

God Bless,

Wayne Sterenberg
President

People, State, and War under the French Regime in Canada Louise Dechêne, 2021-07-15 Covering a period that runs from the founding of the colony in the early seventeenth century to the conquest of 1760 People State and War under the French Regime in Canada is a study of colonial warriors and warfare that examines the exercise of state military power and its effects on ordinary people Overturning the tendency to glorify the military feats of New France and exploding the rosy myth of a tax free colonial population Louise Dech ne challenges the stereotype of the fighting prowess and military enthusiasm of the colony s inhabitants She reveals the profound incidence of social divides the hardship war created for those expected to serve and the state s demands on the civilian population in the form of forced labour requisitions and billeting of soldiers Originally published posthumously in French People State and War under the French Regime in Canada is the culmination of a lifetime of research and unparalleled knowledge of the archival record including official correspondence memoirs military campaign journals taxation records and local parish records Dech ne reconstructs the variegated composition and conditions of military forces in New France which included militia colonial volunteers and regular troops as well as Indigenous allies The study offers an informed and ambitious comparison between France and other French colonies and shows that the mobilization of an unpaid compulsory militia in New France greatly exceeded requirements in other parts of the French domain With empathy sensitivity to the social dimensions of life and a piercing insight into the operations of power Dech ne portrays the colonial condition with its rightful dose of danger and ambiguity Her work underlines the severe toll that warfare takes on the individual and on society and the persistent deprivation disorder fear and death that come with conflict
