The following passage is a partial student draft.

A Case for the Four-Day School Week

(1) The design of modern American schools is based on an industrial-era model of mass reproduction. Times have changed. The most change, public schools in the United States should switch to a four-day week.

(2) It makes fiscal sense to scale our school schedule. The proposal of running a school one day less on single day, every single elementary school runs between five and four student days at school. Just one student day at school, and 1,000 students are not in school.

7. In the fourth paragraph, the drafters attempt to provide evidence that the school should switch to a four-day week.
