Comic Cure for Delusional Democracy Gene Fendt,2014-07-16 This book shows how the discussion of Platos Republic is a comic mimetic cure for civic and psychic delusion Plato creates such pharmaka or noble lies for reasons enunciated by Socrates within the discussion but this indicates Plato must think his readers are in the position of needing the catharses such fictions produce Socrates interlocutors must be like us Since cities are like souls and souls come to be as they are through mimesis of desires dreams actions and thought patterns in the city we should expect that political theorizing often suffers from madness as well It does Gene Fendt shows how contemporary political and psychological theory still suffers from the same delusion Socrates interlocutors reveal in their discussion a dream of autarchia called possessive individualism Plato has good reason to think that only a mimetic rather than a rational and philosophical cure can work Against many standard readings Comic Cure for Delusional Democracy shows that the Republic itself is a defense of poetry that kallipolis cannot be the best city and is not Socrates ideal that there are six forms of regime not five and that the true philosopher should not be unhappy to go back down into Plato s cave Through Minds' Eyes Ryan J. Hite,2013-03-27 This is a book of history ethics and philosophy It is a record of teachings passed down through the generations from the East and the West It contains the fullness of the sealed covenant established between man and the laws of the universe As we evolve as a race we take things out of our lives because we better understand who we are and what we have achieved The divine refers to the laws of nature and the universe that guide us in our everyday lives The creator that guides our everyday lives is not something that we should worship or pray to out of fear or love it is something that remains unseen and works in natural forces to explain all the events that happen on Earth It is merely a force and it is not necessary to belong to a group to experience the light The path to the light is straight and broad The creator of the universe is a divine and intellectual force by which all things came into being The sealed covenant is a pact between all of humanity to the world around us and the universal laws that guide our everyday lives to come together and love one another and come to make the world a better place for all people This shall usher in the evolution of religious traditions and humanity to a new age of prosperity The Great Conversation NORMAN. MORROW MELCHERT (DAVID.),David Morrow,2023-03-31 Changing Faith Michael Hidalgo,2015-04-10 Many of us are grappling with questions How much can we know about God Who decides what is right and what is wrong Do I need God to live a life that matters We ask these questions not because we reject faith in God but because we live in a rapidly changing world of new realities new technology and new insights And that changes how we believe The New Testament of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ Adam Clarke,1835 Evaluation for a Caring Society Merel Visse,Tineke A. Abma,2018-02-01 This book highlights views on responsive participatory and democratic approaches to evaluation from an ethos of care It critically scrutinizes and discusses the invisibility of care in our contemporary Western societies and evaluation practices that aim to measure practices by external standards Alternatively the book proposes several foci for evaluators who work from a care perspective or wish to encourage a caring society This is a society that sees evaluation and care as a continuously unfolding relational practice of moral political learning contributing to life sustaining webs At one level is the evaluator s immediately responsive and interpersonal encounter with the personal troubles of social actors most visible as Mills originally pointed out in an individual s biography and in those social settings directly open to the individual s lived experience At another level the sociological and political level the evaluator operates at what Mills called the arena of public issues where immediate personal troubles are seen not only as problems encountered by individuals but as the result of structural and political arrangements in society evaluation for a caring society is thought to operate at both levels Thomas A Schwandt Professor Emeritus University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign The intricate relationship between evaluation and care is hardly addressed by evaluators or caregivers This book fills a gap as it focuses on the relationship between evaluation and care and provides a multitude of examples of evaluation as a caring practice the book can serve as an antidote to the present day haste in social practices and contribute in form and content to developing an evaluation practice which may foster a caring society Guy Widdershoven Professor of Philosophy and Ethics of Medicine and head of the Department of Medical Humanities at VU University Medical Center VU University Amsterdam The Cross from a Distance Peter G. Bolt,2004-12-09 In this New Studies in Biblical Theology exploration of Mark s Gospel Peter G Bolt looks at why the cross is so prominent in the narrative asks what contribution Mark s teaching can make to our understanding of the atonement and shows how this teaching can inform correct and enrich our own preaching of the gospel in the contemporary world Love to the Uttermost Frederick Brotherton Meyer,1899 The World's Greatest Books (Vol. 1-18) Various,2023-11-12 The World s Greatest Books Vol 1 18 is an expansive anthology that brings together a carefully curated selection of literary masterpieces from diverse cultures and time periods Spanning various genres including fiction poetry and philosophy these volumes encapsulate the essence of human thought and creativity The anthology adopts a scholarly yet accessible style characterized by insightful introductions and contextual notes that enhance the reader s understanding of each work's historical and cultural significance. In delivering this collection, the editors invite readers to engage with texts that have shaped intellectual discourse and inspired generations. The contributors to this anthology include notable literary scholars and anthologists whose extensive backgrounds in literary criticism and history inform their selections. Their deep passion for literature underscores their commitment to showcasing the most influential authors and works from ancient to contemporary times. This careful curation reflects a desire to provide readers with lasting insights into the human experience, demonstrating how these literary contributions resonate across various contexts. I wholeheartedly recommend The World's Greatest Books Vol 1-18 to readers and scholars alike for it is not merely a collection; it is a gateway to discovering the profound intricacies of human thought and creativity. This anthology serves both as a valuable reference for academic study and a rich source for casual reading, making it an essential addition to any literary library.

Encountering the Impossible Alexander Sergeant, 2021-08-01 2022 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Shortlisted for the 2022 Best First Monograph Award presented by the British Association of Film Television and Screen Studies. Hollywood fantasy cinema is responsible for some of the most lucrative franchises produced over the past two decades, yet it remains difficult to find popular or critical consensus on what the experience of watching fantasy cinema actually entails. What makes something a fantasy film, and what unique pleasures does the genre offer? In Encountering the Impossible, Alexander Sergeant solves the riddle of the fantasy film by theorizing the underlying experience of imagination alluded to in scholarly discussions of the genre. Drawing principally on the psychoanalysis of Melanie Klein and D.W. Winnicott, Sergeant considers the way in which fantasy cinema rejects Hollywood's typically naturalistic mode of address to generate an alternative experience that Sergeant refers to as the fantastic: a way of approaching cinema that embraces the illusory nature of the medium as part of the pleasure of the experience. Analyzing such canonical Hollywood fantasy films as The Wizard of Oz, It's a Wonderful Life, Mary Poppins, Conan the Barbarian, and The Lord of the Rings movies, Sergeant theorizes how fantasy cinema provides a unique film experience throughout its ubiquitous presence in the history of Hollywood film production.

Justice, Crime, and Ethics Michael C. Braswell, Belinda R. McCarthy, Bernard J. McCarthy, 2019-11-06. Justice, Crime, and Ethics, a leading textbook in criminal justice programs, examines ethical dilemmas pertaining to the administration of criminal justice and professional activities in the field. This tenth edition continues to deliver a broad scope of topics focusing on law enforcement, legal practice, sentencing, corrections, research, crime control, policy, and philosophical issues. The book's robust coverage encompasses contentious issues such as capital punishment, prison corruption, and the use of deception in police interrogation. The tenth edition includes new material in a number of chapters, including Learning Police Ethics, Using Ethical Dilemmas in Training Police, Prison Corruption, Crime and Justice Myths, Corporate Misconduct, and Ethics. Ethics and Criminal Justice Research and Ethical Issues in Confronting Terrorism. The use of Case Studies, Ethical Dilemmas, and Policy and Ethics boxes continues throughout the textbook. A new feature for this edition is the inclusion of International

Perspective boxes in a number of relevant chapters Students of criminal justice as well as instructors and professionals in the field continue to rely on this thorough dependable resource on ethical decision making in the criminal justice system The Trouble with Science Robin Ian MacDonald Dunbar,1995 Robin Dunbar asks whether science really is unique to Western culture even to humankind He suggests that our trouble with science may lie in the fact that evolution has left our minds better able to cope with day to day social interaction than with the complexities of the external world With the World's Great Travelers Various,2022-01-04 The preface of this book tells that even though voyages are called mere trips distant lands didn't get more familiar As the world became more open and voyages more often the differences between foreign lands and continents became more evident as ever This truth remains topical even today 120 years after these words were put down on paper Now With the World's Great Travelers lets you make a personal voyage through distance and time and see the most outstanding example of travel history in the world's literature The book consists of essays by multiple authors like Edward A Pollard a notable American Journalist Charles Darwin a famous scientist Meriwether Lewis a renowned explorer one of the leaders of the Lewis and Clark Expedition William Howard Russell the most celebrated foreign journalist in America during the times of the Civil War and many others This work gives a deep insight into how the world and traveling looked a century ago The Christian Treasury Anonymous,2022-05-09 Reprint of the original first published in 1869 The Church of England Magazine ,1850 Report and speeches at the third annual meeting of the Church Pastoral aid Society May 8 1838 Early Modern Philosophy Jonathan Head,John Grey,2024-11-28 For anyone in search of the philosophers who influenced one of the richest moments in Western intellectual history this inclusive reader is the place to start Early Modern Philosophy showcases an unrivalled range of thinkers Through them you are introduced to a selection of their texts that return important philosophical ideas and debates to our understanding of modern philosophy Addressing a one sided view of intellectual history that has persisted for centuries this reader goes beyond the usual focus on rationalism and empiricism with readings organised into three parts Dualistic theories of human nature as the union of a mind and a body Debates concerning social relations and education The nature of reality and the way in which the mind reveals or constructs our understanding of the world The thematic approach puts women philosophers and understudied figures in direct conversation with canonical thinkers Extracts from primary sources are accompanied by biographical details questions for reflection further reading and summaries that place philosophers in their historical contexts
