Language, Eros, Being Elliot R. Wolfson, 2009-08-25 This long awaited magisterial study an unparalleled blend of philosophy poetry and philology draws on theories of sexuality phenomenology comparative religion philological writings on Kabbalah Russian formalism Wittgenstein Rosenzweig William Blake and the very physics of the time space continuum to establish what will surely be a highwater mark in work on Kabbalah Not only a study of texts Language Eros Being is perhaps the fullest confrontation of the body in Jewish studies if not in religious studies as a whole Elliot R Wolfson explores the complex gender symbolism that permeates Kabbalistic literature Focusing on the nexus of asceticism and eroticism he seeks to define the role of symbolic and poetically charged language in the erotically configured visionary imagination of the medieval Kabbalists He demonstrates that the traditional Kabbalistic view of gender was a monolithic and androcentric one in which the feminine was conceived as being derived from the masculine He does not shrink from the negative implications of this doctrine but seeks to make an honest acknowledgment of it as the first step toward the redemption of an ancient wisdom Comparisons with other mystical traditions including those in Christianity Buddhism and Islam are a remarkable feature throughout the book They will make it important well beyond Jewish studies indeed a must for historians of comparative religion in particular of comparative mysticism Praise for Elliot R Wolfson Through a Speculum That Shines is an important and provocative contribution to the study of Jewish mysticism by one of the major scholars now working in this field Speculum

Renewing the Covenant Leonora Leet, 1999-03-01 A guide to how meditations and principles from the Kabbalah can be used to profoundly renew spiritual practice Reveals transformational meditations and visualization exercises based on the profoundest truths concealed in the Kabbalah The covenant that bound God to the Patriarchs in a special relationship of obligation and empowerment was renewed by God with Israel at Sinai and Moab Each of these three Jewish covenants can be associated with a particular spiritual practice the Patriarchal Covenant with Father Isaac s practice of meditation The Sinai Covenant of Holiness with the observance of the Sabbath required in its Ten Commandments and the Moab Covenant of Love comprising the entire Mosaic Torah with the practice of prayer instituted there In Renewing the Covenant Leonora Leet shows how this ladder of increasingly demanding and potent covenantal practices can enable one to ascend to ever higher levels of mystical Judaism At this threshold of a new millennium increasing numbers of people are seeking a more direct connection with the Divine To aid such a process Renewing the Covenant provides new paths for entering the treasurehouse of Jewish spirituality and achieving higher consciousness paths that can deepen the devotions of both nonobservant and traditionally observant Jews This process of covenant renewal begins with effective kabbalistic techniques of meditation combining mantra with visualization proceeds through the return to a reconstructed Sinai Sabbath and arrives at the culminating practice of ritual prayer whose performance can fulfill the kabbalistic purpose of creation When undertaken in the steps laid out by Dr Leet this process can help many to discover forms of spiritual practice precisely tailored for the modern world as well as a new appreciation for the rich spiritual heritage of Judaism Opening the Inner Gates Edward Hoffman, 1995-11-14 The Kabbalah is Judaism s intriguing mystical tradition thousands of years old In recent years a growing number of people both Jews and non Jews are finding the Kabbalah to be a fascinating treasure house of wisdom about the human mind Men and women are discovering and applying Jewish mystical insights in daily life and professionals in such fields as psychology psychotherapy and medicine are actively using Kabbalah in their work Opening the Inner Gates is an anthology concerning these new explorations In sixteen chapters thirteen contributors present both theoretical considerations and applied methods of Kabbalah in such areas as healing the mind body relationship dreamwork intuition and creativity storytelling women s spirituality parenting working with the elderly and repairing the world tikkun olam Contributors LaVera Draisin MD Gerald Epstein MD Sheldon Kramer PhD Rabbi Steven Rosman PhD Edward Hoffman PhD Rabbi Zalman Schachter Shalomi Steven Joseph MD Howard Schwartz Rabbi Chaim Richter Alyce R Tresenfeld Mark Malachi Rabbi Rami Shapiro Laya Firestone Seghi Becoming Whole Leslie Stein, 2012-05-01 In 1951 Carl Jung published what he considered the highest synthesis and exposition of the transformation of Self and the discovery of the divine in one of his latest and most difficult works Aion The equation s complexity and uncharacteristic elements of mysticism have caused it to fall by the wayside in traditional Jungian and psychological analysis No major work has tackled this fascinating concept until now Leslie Stein a disciple of noted Jungian analyst Rix Weaver here explores this groundbreaking equation to its fullest capacity Tracing the roots of Jung s research back to his influences in the world of the Kabbalah and Sufi mysticism and grounding the more esoteric philosophy toward the modern sense of identity Stein has produced both a rigorous work of scholarship on a major figure and a guide that challenges readers to reflect on our own truths Mother's Milk Deena Aranoff,2025-09-02 This book engages with an age old question What accounts for the persistence of Jewish culture through the ages Despite significant variations how were Jewish cultural elements sustained over the millennia Mother's Milk Essays on Child Rearing the Household and the Making of Jewish Culture proposes that we include the earliest phases of child rearing in the history of Jewish cultural production Author Deena Aranoff argues that some of the most enduring aspects of Jewish culture are produced in the context of household and family relations Mother's Milk examines how Jewish practices including rabbinic halakhah are derived from household custom and unfold within the context of family life Aranoff proposes a revised genealogy of Jewish culture that emphasizes the interplay between everyday life and formal Jewish practice
