Self-Evaluation Paper

Giving four speeches in class and afterward observing them like an audience member has been a helpful and interesting experience. Messages that I felt would be delivered successfully ended up falling flat, while others that I worried over turned out positively at times. This has benefited me by allowing an assessment of the planning and preparation stages along with the execution and result. Entering the class, I felt that I was already a rather strong public speaker. Now I know more clearly the many areas on which a person can focus when honing this skill. I am also aware which of these areas I must improve upon to become a more effective public speaker.

I have had a number of opportunities in the past to get in front of people and speak. Usually it was related to work and involved the demonstration of a procedure or educating people on a subject. While this class did not introduce anything immediately unfamiliar to me (such as getting in front of a group and doing something worthwhile with everyone's time), the objectivity of speechmaking was very much a new idea for me. Along with this came learning many of the tools a speaker must employ when crafting a message that is to be received by an audience of individuals—also a new idea. In the past, I always felt confident in my ability to deliver a speech or give a demonstration effectively, but now I realize that I did not generally concern myself with the many speechmaking tools that have been brought up in this class. Knowing one's Media Education Assessment Handbook William G. Christ, 2020-07-24 Assessing media education is a formidable task because both assessment and media education are complex and controversial concepts Assessment which can take place at the individual student class sequence program department or unit and university levels is questioned in terms of reliability validity relevance and cost Media education which has been challenged at a number of schools finds faculty and administrators in the midst of soul searching about how to clearly articulate its missions and purposes to a broader audience Departments are under increasing national state and institutional pressure to get assessment procedures carried out quickly but there is an obvious danger in rushing to implement assessment strategies before establishing what is essential in media education In communication education in general the what of assessment is often discussed in terms of skills attitudes affect values and knowledge People assess students to determine what they know think feel value and can do Here it is suggested that one of the places to start defining what students should learn from their media education is by identifying outcomes Outcomes can be assessed in a variety of ways but first they need to be developed and clearly articulated

From Struggling Students to Successful Writers in 7 Easy Steps Joanna Posey, 2009-09 This Volume is the first of 2 volumes that are being released together but under separate covers Volume 1 contains the instructional guide to teach special education students and English language learners to be successful writers in 7 easy steps In view of the increasing educational dropout rate of these special populations this unique simple program offers encouragement hope and success to students who are struggling in developing their writing skills Not only is this program easy to learn and remember but students are able to increase their writing skills in shorter periods of time This Volume contains five no frills bare bones lesson plans along with teacher comments It also includes reproducible Master Guide Sheets and student Self evaluation forms The simplified color coding system is used as a consistent predictable routine in each writing activity This program like no other promotes student self confidence and renewed interest in learning The words I can't write turn into Yes I can However the best kept secret is that these 7 easy steps will help all students Listen to what the kids are saying I had a lot of fun with Steps 1 to 7 They really helped me with my work comments from an 8th grade student The first thing I learned was Steps 1 to 7 I learned how to write better paragraphs comments from an 8th grade student I learned how to web my ideas using complete sentences comments from an 8th grade student I did really well on my writing assessment because I used the 7 steps comments from a 9th grade student I couldn't write a complete sentence With these steps I can write complete paragraphs and essays for Language Arts and Geography I did well in my writing test too comments from a 9th grade student Listen to what teachers are saying I have been in meetings where parents have commented how effective her writing program has been with helping their kids I've often heard parents express their gratitude for their child's success due to Ms Posey's teaching comments from a junior high teacher After the 9th graders took the writing assessment several of the students commented on how good they felt about their writing abilities that were a direct result of the efforts of Ms Posey comments from a junior high teacher Her strategies and writing techniques resulted in 50% improvement an impressive increase in the scores of resource students for the 9th grade direct writing assessment This is the highest achievement I've seen in my 30 years of teaching comments from a secondary special education teacher

Real Writing Mitchell Nobis, Daniel Laird, Carrie Nobis, Dawn Reed, Dirk Schulze, 2016-09-23 High school writing prompts often ask students to provide overly simplified responses to complicated issues but a person's stance in the real world can rarely if ever be reduced to agree or disagree Arguments are complex with more than two points of view and a range of evidence to consider however writing classes don't always embrace that complexity Real Writing Modernizing the Old School Essay contends that engaging fully with complex texts and difficult nuanced arguments helps students become better thinkers and writers more fully prepared for life both in and after high school By offering students current texts to read and issues to discuss teachers introduce their students to more complex arguments Real Writing Modernizing the Old School Essay recognizes the value of various types of texts but the need for contemporary readings in our literature and composition classes is important for relevancy related to student engagement the Common Core State Standards and participation in our democratic society This book shares curricular moves to engage students in reading and writing authentic arguments Writing: Step by Step Randy Devillez, 2003-05-30 What are your students goals
