Self Introduction Letter To Embassy:

Foreign Visa Requirements, 1987 Target Tokyo Gordon W. Prange, Donald M. Goldstein, Katherine V. Dillon, 2014-05-06 From the New York Times bestselling authors of Miracle at Midway A thrilling account of one of World War II's most legendary spies Richard Sorge was dispatched to Tokyo in 1933 to serve the spymasters of Moscow For eight years he masqueraded as a Nazi journalist and burrowed deep into the German embassy digging for the secrets of Hitler's invasion of Russia and the Japanese plans for the East In a nation obsessed with rooting out moles he kept a high profile boozing womanizing and operating entirely under his own name But he policed his spy ring scrupulously keeping such a firm grip that by the time the Japanese uncovered his infiltration he had done irreversible damage to the cause of the Axis The first definitive account of one of the most remarkable espionage sagas of World War II Target Tokyo is a tightly wound portrayal of a man who risked his life for his country hiding in plain sight Bulletin Pan American Union, 1913 Visa Requirements of Foreign Governments United States. Leading a Successful International Sports Tour United States. Department of State, 1975 Anglo-Chinese Encounters Before the Opium War Xin Liu, 2022-08-12 Anglo Chinese Encounters Before the Opium War A Tale of Two Empires Over Two Centuries studies the fascinating encounters between the two historic empires from Queen Elizabeth I's first letter to the Ming Emperor Wanli in 1583 to Lord Palmerston's letter to the Minister of China in 1840 Starting with Queen Elizabeth I's letter to the Chinese Emperor and ending with the letter from Lord Palmerston to the Minister of China just before the Opium War this book explores the long journey in between from cultural diplomacy to gunboat diplomacy It interweaves the most known diplomatic efforts at the official level with the much unknown intellectual interactions at the people to people level from missionaries to scholars from merchants to travelers and from artists to scientists This book adopts a novel mirror approach by pairing and comparing people texts commodities artworks architecture ideologies operating systems and world views of the two empires Using letters gifts and traded goods as fulcrums and by adopting these unique lenses it puts China into the world history narratives to contextualise Anglo Chinese relations thus providing a fresh analysis of the surviving evidence Xin Liu casts a new light on understanding the Sino centric and Anglo centric world views in driving the complex relations between the two empires and the reversals of power shifts that are still unfolding today The book is not intended for specialists in history but a general audience wishing to learn more about China's historical engagement with the world The New York Public Library Desk Reference New York Public Library, 1989 A Stonesong Press book This collection of the most frequently sought information is organized into 26 subject areas Includes events discoveries people facts dates terms etc Writing Travel in Central Asian History Nile Green, 2014-01-02 For centuries travelers have made Central Asia known to the wider world through their writings In this volume scholars employ these little known texts in a wide range of Asian and European languages to trace how Central Asia was gradually absorbed into global affairs. The representations of the region brought home to China and Japan. India and Persia, Russia and Great Britain provide valuable evidence that helps map earlier periods of globalization and cultural interaction.

Travel, Time, and Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen, 2018-10-22. Research on medieval and early modern travel literature has made great progress which now allows us to take the next step and to analyze the correlations between the individual and space throughout time which contributed essentially to identity formation in many different settings. The contributors to this volume engage with a variety of pre-modern texts, images and other documents related to travel and the individual's self-orientation in foreign lands and make an effort to determine the concept of identity within a spatial framework often determined by the meeting of various cultures. Moreover, objects, images and words can also travel and connect people from different worlds through books. The volume thus brings together new scholarship focused on the interrelationship of travel, space, time and individuality which also includes, of course, women's movement through the larger world, whether in concrete terms or through proxy travel via readings. Travel here is also examined with respect to craftsmen's activities at various sites, artists' employment for many different projects all over Europe and elsewhere and in terms of metaphysical experiences, catabasis.
