1986, and 1989, I argued that as industrialized nations build systems, they destroy cultures. I demonstrated how a "good" industrialized culture grew and then became a spoiled image that could produce more problems than solutions. I wrote and the Japanese culture went out of the way to keep me. However, the Japanese and the industrialized nations had little respect for me, as a human being, and the very end they produced a little progress, but not a lot.
