

MARK SCHEME for the October/November 2014 series

1123 ENGLISH LANGUAGE

1123/22

Paper 2 (Reading), maximum raw mark 50

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2014 series for most Cambridge IGCSE®, Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.

October November 2014 Cambridge O Level Marking Scheme:

The Importance of Place: Geographical Indications as a Tool for Local and Regional Development William van Caenegem, Jen Cleary, 2017-03-27 This book explores the potential benefits and disadvantages of geographical indication GIs registration schemes analyzing the utility of GI registrations for the development and promotion of regional economies both in national and international markets The book draws on the van Caenegem Cleary Drahos Australian Provenance Report along with the valuable empirical data collected in connection with it The book situates the rural development question in an international context presenting several case studies from Italy France and Morocco New Zealand and Australia The book contains various chapters focused on comparing regulatory structures in various relevant jurisdictions and drawing on other countries experiences It contains significant contributions from industry actors with extensive experience in regional branding initiatives and GI related policy issues Progressive in structure the book starts from the big picture level before moving down to the local and concrete scale Geographical indications of Australian products are vital both in domestic and overseas markets by accurately representing the origin and quality of niche agricultural products Thus with a particular focus on Australia the book promotes the assessment of geographical indications as potential regional assets that will help producers develop local quality indicators that will serve as public goods for successive generations of producers

Validating Technological Innovation David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders Roma Tre Law Review - 01/2024, 2024-09-26 The Roma Tre Law Review R3LR is an open source peer reviewed e journal which aims to offer a digital forum for scholarly debate on issues of comparative law international law law and economics law and society criminal law legal history and teaching methods in law

Nationalism, Identity and the Governance of Diversity F. Barker, 2015-02-04 Examining the evolving responses to immigration migrant integration and diversity of substate governments in Quebec Flanders and Brussels and Scotland Fiona Barker explores what happens when the new diversity arising from immigration intersects with the old politics of substate nationalism in decentralized multinational societies Troublemakers Stephen Crossley, 2018-04-04 The launch of the Troubled Families Programme in the wake of the 2011 riots conflated poor and disadvantaged families with anti social and criminal families The programme aimed to turn around the lives of the country's most troubled families at a time of austerity and wide ranging welfare reforms which hit the poorest families hardest This detailed authoritative and critical account reveals the inconsistencies and contradictions within the programme and issues of deceit and malpractice in its operation It shows how this core government policy has stigmatised the families it claimed to support Paving the way for a government to fulfil its responsibility to families rather than condemning them this book will empower local authority workers policy makers and researchers and anyone interested in social justice to challenge damaging aggressive neoliberal statecraft

Copyright and the Court of Justice of the European Union Eleonora Rosati, 2023-10-06 First released in early 2019 Copyright and the Court of Justice of the European Union remains the only book exclusively devoted to the case law of the Court of Justice of the European Union CJEU in the EU copyright field Fully updated for the new edition the book explains the Court's role and action in the field of EU copyright law and provides readers with a sense of the direction of the Court's jurisprudence through an exercise of tidying up and rationalizing the rulings issued so far In his foreword to the first edition First Advocate General Maciej Szpunar praised the book's profound analysis of the EU copyright protection and CJEU decisions which in his view unveiled new information perhaps never considered even by members of the Court The new edition captures all the significant developments in EU copyright law that have occurred since 2019 Aside from macro events such as the UK's now completed departure from the EU and the adoption of the Digital Single Market Directive 2019/790 seminal judgments have been issued by the CJEU which touch upon all the main foundational aspects of EU copyright This book is structured in three parts The first part is about the role of the CJEU as an EU institution Following a discussion of the impact of CJEU interpretation of EU copyright provisions notably their pre-emptive effect on individual EU Member States freedom the second part is concerned with CJEU action and vision in respect of four key areas of copyright and related rights the requirements for protection construction of exclusive rights exceptions and limitations and enforcement The final part focuses on the legacy of CJEU case law broadly intended having regard to both individual countries copyright laws specifically the UK and recent EU copyright reform discourse notably in the context of the DSM Directive Timely and engaging Copyright and the Court of Justice of the European Union provides novel insights into the activity of the CJEU in the copyright field and reflects on the resulting implications for the present and future of EU copyright

Gold, Finance and Imperialism in South Africa, 1887-1902 Mariusz Lukasiewicz, 2024-03-19 This book provides a unique account of the financial and political history of the South African War by analysing the organisation and operations of the Johannesburg Stock Exchange JSE the oldest existing stock exchange in the African continent Identifying the JSE as the nexus between international finance South African gold mining and British imperialism the book exposes the financial and political connections between Johannesburg Pretoria London and Paris during the final stage of the imperial scramble for southern Africa Gold mining presented the South African Republic ZAR and the whole southern African regional economy with a long term economic future and new prospects of industrialisation However this socio-economic transformation was dependent on extensive capital investments and the institutionalisation of a coercive labour regime based on racial discrimination This monograph provides the first empirical examination of how international finance imperial politics and racialised industrial relations became entrenched in a key financial intermediary in colonial South Africa first in Kimberley in the Cape Colony and then in Johannesburg in the ZAR By studying the Johannesburg capital market s social microstructures the author demonstrates how colonial and international financial intermediaries underwrote and financed the largest wave of mining investments in Africa prior to the First World War Filling an important gap in literature on nineteenth century British imperialism and Anglo African Afrikaner relations this insightful book uses the JSE as a lens to carefully expose the structures and agency of global finance in the outbreak of the South African War and the making of South Africa as a unified colonial state

Perception of visual advertising in different media: from attention to distraction, persuasion, preference and memory Jaana Simola, Jukka Hyönä, Jarmo Kuisma, 2015-02-24 This Research Topic aims to showcase the state of the art in visual advertising research Although visual processes are a central component of consumer behavior they have been largely neglected in models explaining consumer perception of advertising Rather than being the mere input into the cognitive or affective systems the visual processes both voluntarily and involuntarily affect the amount and quality of information that is passed into further mental processing Moreover advertisements provide a well designed rich and stimulating environment to study visual processes in real life conditions Consumers encounter thousands of advertisement messages per day Previous research on visual perception of advertising mostly considers print advertising However advertising messages increasingly appear in a variety of formats and in different media Part of these messages are still conveyed through traditional media such as newspapers magazines television as well as outdoor and supermarket advertising In addition the amount and diversity of visual marketing stimuli is rapidly growing in terms of different advertising formats appearing in online and social media smartphones and tablets This challenges the marketing professionals and academics to better understand the impact of marketing on consumers At the same time the technical development of the research methods allows better opportunities to investigate advertising perception in different environments Traditionally papers investigating the psychological processes underlying advertising perception are published in journals widespread across different disciplines such as marketing applied psychology and human computer interaction journals With this Research Topic we aim to create a forum in which experts in different fields define the state of the art and future directions of the research on the visual aspects of marketing We include reviews and original research papers involving both empirical and theoretical studies on visual perception of advertising across different media

Not What The Bus Promised Tamara Herve, Ivanka Antova, Mark L Flear, Matthew Wood, 2023-10-05 What does the UK's exit from the EU mean for health and the NHS This book explains the legal and practical implications of Brexit on the NHS its staffing especially on the island of Ireland medicines medical devices and equipment and biomedical research It considers the UK's post Brexit trade agreements and what they mean for health and discusses the effects of the COVID 19 pandemic on post Brexit health law To put the legal analysis in context the book draws on over 400 conversations the authors had with people in the north of England and Northern Ireland interviews with over 40 health policy stakeholders details of a film about their research made with ShoutOut UK the authors work with Parliaments and governments across the UK and their collaborations with key actors like the NHS Confederation the British Medical Association and Cancer Research UK The book shows that the language people use to talk about hoped for legitimate post Brexit health governance suggests a great deal of faith in law and legal process among ordinary people but the opposite from insider elites Not What The Bus Promised puts the authors knowledge and experiences centre frame rather than claiming to express objective reality It will be of interest to any reader who cares about the NHS and wants to understand its present and future

Discrimination, Vulnerable Consumers and Financial Inclusion Cătălin-Gabriel Stănescu, Asress Adimi Gikay, 2020-12-28 This book addresses the questions of discrimination vulnerable consumers and financial inclusion in the light of the emerging legal socioeconomic and technological challenges New technologies such as artificial intelligence driven consumer credit risk assessment and Fintech platforms the changing nature of vulnerability due to the ongoing COVID 19 pandemic as well as the sophistication of digital technologies which help circumvent legal barriers and protections necessitate the continuous study of the existing legal frameworks and measures that are capable of tackling these challenges Organized in two major parts the first addresses from multiple national angles the idea of a human rights approach to consumer law in order to replace the mantra of economic efficiency that characterizes financial services with those of human dignity and freedom from discrimination and from debt induced servitude The second tackles the challenges posed by increased usage of technology in connection with financial services which tends to solve but also creates additional issues for consumers in general and for vulnerable groups in particular

Injustice Danny Dorling, 2015-06-03 In the five years since the first edition of Injustice there have been devastating increases in poverty hunger and destitution in the UK Globally the richest 1% have never held a greater share of world wealth while the share of most of the other 99% has fallen in the last five years with more and more people in debt especially the young Economic inequalities will persist and continue to grow for as long as we tolerate the injustices which underpin them This fully rewritten and updated edition revisits Dorling's claim that Beveridge's five social evils are being replaced by five new tenets of injustice elitism is efficient exclusion is necessary prejudice is natural greed is good and despair is inevitable By showing these beliefs are unfounded Dorling offers hope of a more equal society We are living in the most remarkable and dangerous times With every year that passes it is more evident that Injustice is essential reading for anyone concerned with social justice and wants to do something about it China's War on Smuggling Philip Thai,2018-06-12 Smuggling along the Chinese coast has been a thorn in the side of many regimes From opium and weapons concealed aboard foreign steamships in the Qing dynasty to nylon stockings and wristwatches trafficked in the People's Republic contests between state and smuggler have exerted a surprising but crucial influence on the political economy of modern China Seeking to consolidate domestic authority and confront foreign challenges states introduced tighter regulations higher taxes and harsher enforcement These interventions sparked widespread defiance triggering further coercive measures Smuggling simultaneously threatened the state's power while inviting repression that strengthened its authority Philip Thai chronicles the vicissitudes of smuggling in modern China its practice suppression and significance to demonstrate the intimate link between illicit coastal trade and the amplification of state power China's War on Smuggling shows that the fight against smuggling was not a simple law enforcement problem but rather an impetus to centralize authority and expand economic controls The smuggling epidemic gave Chinese states pretext to define legal and illegal behavior and the resulting constraints on consumption and movement remade everyday life for individuals merchants and communities Drawing from varied sources such as legal cases customs records and popular press reports and including diverse perspectives from political leaders frontline enforcers organized traffickers and petty runners Thai uncovers how different regimes policed maritime trade and the unintended consequences their campaigns unleashed China's War on Smuggling traces how defiance and repression redefined state power offering new insights into modern Chinese social legal and economic history Telling America's Story to the World Harilaos Stecopoulos,2022-10-06 Telling America's Story to the World argues that state and state affiliated cultural diplomacy contributed to the making of postwar US literature Highlighting the role of liberal internationalism in US cultural outreach Harilaos Stecopoulos contends that the state mainly sent authors like Ralph Ellison Robert Frost William Faulkner Langston Hughes and Maxine Hong Kingston overseas not just to demonstrate the achievements of US civilization but also to broadcast an American commitment to international cross cultural connection Those writers cum ambassadors may not have helped the state achieve its propaganda goals indeed this rarely proved the case but they did find their assignments an opportunity to ponder the international meanings and possibilities of US literature For many of those figures courting foreign publics inspired a reevaluation of the scope and form of their own literary projects Testifying to the inadvertent yet integral role of cultural diplomacy in the worlding of US letters works like The Mansion 1959 Life Studies 1959 Cultural Exchange 1961 1967 Tripmaster Monkey His Fake Book 1989 and Three Days Before the Shooting 2010 reimagine US literature in a mobile global and distinctly political register The
