

MARK SCHEME for the October/November 2014 series

0510 ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

0510/21

Paper 2 (Reading and Writing – Extended), maximum raw mark 90

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2014 series for most Cambridge IGCSE[®], Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.

The Comic Everywoman in Irish Popular Theatre Susanne Colleary, 2018-12-30 This book is a comprehensive study of comic women in performance as Irish Political Melodrama from 1890 to 1925 It maps out the performance contexts of the period such as Irish poor theatre both reflecting and complicating narratives of Irish Identity under British Rule The study investigates the melodramatic aesthetic within these contexts and goes on to analyse a selection of the melodramas by the playwrights J W Whitbread and P J Bourke In doing so the analyses makes plain the comic structures and intent that work across both character and action foregrounding comic women at the centre of the discussion Finally the book applies a practice as research dimension to the study Working through a series of workshops rehearsals and a final performance Colleary investigates comic identity and female performance through a feminist revisionist lens She ultimately argues that the formulation of the Comic Everywoman as staged Comic identity can connect beyond the theatre to her Everyday self This book is intended for those interested in theatre histories comic women and in popular performance

Alleviative Objects David Frohnapfel, 2020-12-07 The global field of contemporary art is shaped by inter racial conflicts Alleviative Objects approaches Caribbean art through intersectional entanglements and combines decolonial epistemologies with critical whiteness studies and affect theory in order to rethink Euro and U S centric perspectives on art race and class David Frohnapfel shows how progressive racism in the discourse on Haitian art recenters Whiteness by performing benign innocent and heroic identifications with the artist group Atis Rezistans While the study turns critically towards Whiteness it also turns away from it and towards the compelling contributions of Haitian curators and artists to the decentralization of contemporary art

Focus On: 100 Most Popular English Songwriters Wikipedia contributors, Transcending Self and Other Through Akogare [Desire] Chisato Nonaka, 2018-09-26 The Japanese concept of akogare has become well known in TESOL related literature in recent years usually in the context of interracial sexual desire In this far reaching new study of the internationalization of Japanese Higher Education Chisato Nonaka uses akogare as both an analytical lens and the object of enquiry and ultimately reconceptualises it as the creation of a space where individuals negotiate and transcend their ethnic national racial gender or linguistic identities The book innovatively engages with the often controversial binary of Japanese non Japanese and demonstrates how Japan often thought of as a homogenous nation may be at a critical crossroads where long held assumptions about a singular Japanese identity no longer hold true The book has profound implications for how internationalization can mean more than just the use of English
