Geological Survey Water-supply Paper ,1976 Women in Modern Burma Tharaphi Than, 2013-11-07 This book challenges the popular notion that Burmese women are powerful and are granted equal rights as men by society Throughout history Burmese women have been represented as powerful and as having equal status to men by western travellers and scholars alike National history about women also follows this conjecture This book explains why actually very few powerful Burmese women exist and how these few women help construct the notion of the high status of Burmese women thereby inevitably silencing the majority of unequal and disempowered women One of the underlying questions throughout this book is why a few powerful women feel compelled to defend the notion that women hold privileged positions in Burmese society Combining historical archives with statistical data published by UN agencies this book highlights the reality of women's status in modern Burma Case studies include why the first Burmese women's army was disbanded a few months after its establishment how women writers assessed the conditions of Burmese women and represented their contemporaries in their works the current state of prostitution how modern day sex workers are trying to find their voice and how women fared vis vis men in education

Youth and Employment in Sub-Saharan Africa Hiroyuki Hino, Gustav Ranis, 2014-06-05 It is widely acknowledged that youth unemployment is one of the most critical challenges facing countries in Sub Saharan Africa This volume brings together an eminent group of international scholars to analyse the extent and complex nature of this joblessness and offer a set of evidence based policy choices that could contribute to solving the problem in the short and long run Part I reviews the existing literature on youth unemployment and underemployment in Sub Saharan Africa from microeconomic and macroeconomic perspectives while Part II goes on to present detailed country studies of Ethiopia Ghana Kenya and South Africa These studies offer a deep understanding of the situation on the ground and consider country specific solutions Throughout the book it is argued that the standard ILO definition of unemployment is too narrow to correctly portray employment situations in Sub Saharan Africa Several alternative measures of unemployment are presented which show that joblessness is far more pervasive than commonly assumed in the literature This volume will be of interest to
