

Oedipus/Minority Report Essay

Although the prompt has been on Blackboard for some time, it seems that a more simple prompt is in order. Oedipus and Minority Report have a number of themes running through them. You have discussed them on Blackboard, spoken of them in class, viewed them and read about them.

Scholarly work means taking in the information from others and being knowledgeable about the work of which you are writing. Using an online database available through the MMA library web site, locate, and read the following articles, or locate and read two or three different articles that may better discuss the theme you are writing about.

- Sutton, Brian. "Sophocles' Oedipus the King and Spielberg's Minority Report." Explicator Summer 2005, vol. 63 issue 4, pages 194-197
- Boxer, Sarah. "How Oedipus is Losing His Complex." New York Times 6 Dec. 1997
- Find one or more other articles from a peer reviewed database having to do with the theme you are exploring in Oedipus the King and Minority Report.

To access a database, go to the library homepage via Quicklinks on the MMA homepage and then on the upper left click Key Databases. Select a database that contains humanities titles, such as American Search Premiere or Jstor or any other suggestion you may get from Mrs. Berteaux. Enter key words or title and be sure to check the box for Full Text.

Concepts or themes to consider (or choose anything else you're intrigued with)

- (1) comparing John Anderton to Oedipus
- (2) determining if Minority Report can be classified as a tragedy and discuss how it compares to the play
- (3) trace the images of vision and blindness throughout the Minority Report and Oedipus and the role it plays in the Oedipal theme
- (4) Consider which does a better job of addressing these themes or issues for modern audiences, Oedipus or Minority Report.

Essay: Write an essay discussing the theme you have chosen and use support from the film, the play, and the articles you have explored that support your concepts. You do not necessarily have to compare the two works. You may find a theme in the two of them and discuss its relevance to today's world (similar to the Blackboard Discussion). You may discuss Oedipus Complex in the two of them. Do you think Spielberg referenced Oedipus Complex deliberately? How is religion used in the two works (although we didn't discuss it much—it's there). Use MLA documentation, which means in-text citations and a Works Cited page.
