Have you ever tried to walk a mile in someone else's shoes I am in New Zealand after a period of struggle I feel cold when facing the Franz Josef glacier I don't like cold Lately I have been trapped in the past I also foresee traps in the future But today rather than looking forward or backward I face down I take off my shoes A cold shiver runs down my spine when I put on boots that are not mine A laminated letter tells the story of Keller's early passing and his desire to travel New Zealand I pull myself up by its bootstraps With Keller's boots on my feet I will set his footsteps Keller becomes my guide My inspirer My friend Keller changes my day my future and the way I view my past I tie my laces and look up The glacier becomes more graceful by the cold I become more gracious to the cold If life seems to be upside down try to change perspective This is how I from that moment on have traveled the world How I have written this book about it to honor Keller and to guide fellow travelers And how I have tried to live my life This collection of one pagers contains over 100 philosophies poems questions quests and challenges Keller and I attempt to inspire you to get the most out of your journey Anywhere and anytime We will guide you so you won't forget your travel I will never forget Keller my guide Forever on my mind If the shoes fit grace us with wearing them
