Interventions, Training, and Technologies for Improved Police Well-Being and Performance Arble, Eamonn Patrick, Arnetz, Bengt B., 2021-06-18 The need for evidence based practice to enhance current and future police training and assessment has never been greater This need focuses on the procedures and findings of research within the field of police work along with the philosophy guiding these research approaches and commentaries on the methods being used With many future directions for the science of police training and assessment the focus on new training techniques and technologies for improving performance is of the utmost importance to find the best current evidence based practices for policing In addition to these practices understanding the practical realities and challenges of implementing cutting edge procedures is essential in gaining a holistic view on police well being and performance Interventions Training and Technologies for Improved Police Well Being and Performance is a critical publication that explores new training methods and technologies The future of policing is poised to change making the need for developments in evidence based practices more important than ever before New technology and techniques for improving performance and the perception of the police force can guide the policies and practices of law enforcement trainers and academies government officials policymakers psychologists psychiatrists therapists to a more effective implementation of training and procedures Including the perspective of police officers within the publication this text offers insight into an often neglected viewpoint when creating training and policies This text is also be beneficial for researchers academicians and students interested in the new training techniques technologies and interventions for police performance and well being

Leadership and Management in Police Organizations Matthew J. Giblin, 2016-09-16 Addresses the different management styles that are applicable to large as well as small police agencies Dr Michael Wigginton Jr University of Mississippi Built on a foundation of nearly 1 200 references Leadership and Management in Police Organizations is a highly readable text that shows how organizational theory and behavior can be applied to improve the operations leadership and management of law enforcement Author Matthew J Giblin emphasizes leadership and management as separate skills in successful police supervisors and executives illustrating to students how the two skills combine to improve individual and organizational efficacy in policing Readers will come away with a stronger understanding of why organizational decisions matter and the impact research can have on police departments Issues and Controversies in Policing Today Johnny Nhan,2025-03-18

Issues and Controversies in Policing Today by Johnny Nhan is a thought provoking exploration of today s policing challenges It delves into contemporary topics ranging from police misconduct and racial profiling to LGBTQ officers and policing technologies These topics are grounded in theory research and practice This second edition features two new chapters covering 1 the critical shortage of police officers and 2 the conflict and tensions between street cops and management cops Since the first edition the author has undergone the police academy and became a reserve police officer This new and unique perspective going from academic to practitioner adds depth bringing firsthand experience to the discussion and throughout this text Whether you are a student practitioner or curious reader the second edition of Issues and Controversies in Policing Today offers valuable insights into the evolving landscape of law enforcement To Watch Over Them Day and Night Jeffrey Strickland,2017-04-09 I have been behind enemy lines Once in a city in the middle of East Germany Berlin was divided by a wall that to cross meant certain death Now it is one thing to be behind enemy lines but to live there is another matter Working behind enemy lines at least brings the hope of returning to friendly territory or overcoming the enemy completely But the world we live in even in America we are smack dead center of enemy territory and the enemy isn t going anywhere at least not until the Lord comes back and kicks Lucifer s tail That s right when your Christian children are at home school daycare or VBS they are in enemy territory belonging to Lucifer But Israel was in the same boat especially after Nehemiah returned to rebuild the destroyed vulnerable city of Jerusalem And they all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and to cause confusion in it And we prayed to our God and set a guard as a protection against them day and night Nehemiah 4 7 9 Now we set a guard Actively Caring for People Policing E. Scott Geller,Bobby Kipper,2017-01-24 A revolutionary new approach to policing that puts people over punishment Experts have struggled to define the term police culture For most this label means a reactive approach to keeping people safe by using punitive consequences to punish or detain the perpetrators The result More attention is given to the negative reactive side of policing than a positive proactive approach to preventing crime by cultivating an interdependent culture of residents looking out for the safety health and well being of each other In Actively Caring for People Policing authors E Scott Geller and Bobby Kipper show how police officers can play a critical and integral role in achieving such a community of compassion an Actively Caring for People AC4P culture With AC4P policing consequences are used to increase the quantity and improve the quality of desired behavior Police officers are educated about the rationale behind using more positive than negative consequences to manage behavior and then they are trained on how to deliver positive consequences in ways that help to cultivate interpersonal trust and AC4P behavior among police officers and the citizens they serve The result humanistic behaviorism to enhance long term positive relations between police officers and the citizens they serve thereby preventing interpersonal conflict violence and harm
