Mystery Women, Volume Three (Revised) Colleen Barnett,2010-12-31 Like other fictional characters female sleuths may live in the past or the future They may represent current times with some level of reality or shape their settings to suit an agenda There are audiences for both realism and escapism in the mystery novel It is interesting however to compare the fictional world of the mystery sleuth with the world in which readers live Of course mystery readers do not share one simplistic world They live in urban suburban and rural areas as do the female heroines in the books they read They may choose a book because it has a familiar background or because it takes them to places they long to visit Readers may be rich or poor young or old conservative or liberal So are the heroines What incredible choices there are today in mystery series This three volume encyclopedia of women characters in the mystery novel is like a gigantic menu Like a menu the descriptions of the items that are provided are subjective Volume 3 of Mystery Women as currently updated adds an additional 42 sleuths to the 500 plus who were covered in the initial Volume 3 These are more recently discovered sleuths who were introduced during the period from January 1 1990 to December 31 1999 This more than doubles the number of sleuths introduced in the 1980s 298 of whom were covered in Volume 2 and easily exceeded the 347 series and some outstanding individuals described in Volume 1 which covered a 130 year period from 1860 1979 It also includes updates on those individuals covered in the first edition changes in status short reviews of books published since the first edition through December 31 2008 Sheepfarmer's Daughter Elizabeth Moon, 1988-06 Paksenarrion Paks for short refuses her father's orders to marry the pig farmer down the road and is off to join the army And so her adventure begins the adventure that transforms her into a hero remembered in songs chosen by the gods to restore a lost ruler to his throne

Gladiator Sparticus Yusun Yohance Beck, 2019-10-22 A fictional character is created as an example and he is meant to demonstrate a man that runs away from his calling only to find that his chief purpose in life was to fulfill his calling serving the Maker and trusting Him always An immortal from 480 BC is resurrected by the Creator after an arrow pierces his heart His job is to fight against the Prince of the Air and the principalities disguised as the mythological gods the shadow forces portrayers of light and criminals This historical fiction travels through 480 BC to 800 AD His powers are not his own for they are gifted from the Creator and they will be dulled if he refuses or turns away yet the Creator knows that he is going to make the right decision all along Sparticus meets many including Leonidas Alcibiades heroes Alexander the Great Spartacus and Julius Caesar During this compelling story he loses his wife his children are scattered and his nation is torn apart Afterward he runs from his mission for so long that he finally decides that there is no running from a deity that created him the world and the entire universe Escaping an omnipresent omniscient and omnipotent being proves to be impossible Hence a turning point was the capture in Rome where he witnessed much and had seen one event that illuminated his mind thus he submits to the grand authority to take up the cost and faces off with his predetermined path around 800 AD taking on his first villain At the end of the day this is a Christian hero dealing with adult issues An imperfect man is saved by that same omnipotent deity undergoing a process where he struggles with his own selfishness before fully accepting the cost of the Great Commission Mad Hatters and March Hares Seanan McGuire, Catherynne M.
