The Elemental Passion for Place in the Ontopoiesis of Life Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-04-18 Continuing the pioneering work in the field laid bare by the uncovering the Creative Condition of the human being in literature and fine arts the elemental passion of place leads us through the creative imagination into the labyrinths of the onto-poiesis of life itself Tymieniecka in her inaugural study Essays by A T Tymieniecka Mary Catanzaro W Smith Jadwiga Smith L Dunton Downer Jorge Garc a Gomez Ch Eykmann Marlies Kronegger Eldon N van Liere Hans Rudnik make this collection a unique contribution to literary studies as well as to the metaphysics of life and of the human condition Entangled Histories of the Balkans - Volume Four Roumen Dontchev Daskalov, Diana Mishkova, Tchavdar Marinov, Alexander Vezenkov, 2017-02-06 The present volume is the last in the Entangled Balkans series and marks the end of several years of research guided by the transnational entangled history and histoire croise approaches The essays in this volume address theoretical and methodological issues of Balkan or Southeast European regional studies not only questions of scholarly concepts definitions and approaches but also the extra scholarly ideological political and geopolitical motivations that underpin them These issues are treated more systematically and by a presentation of their historical evolution in various national traditions and schools Some of the essays deal with the articulation of certain forms of Balkan heritage in relation to the geographical spread and especially the cultural definition of the Balkan area Concepts and definitions of the Balkans are thus complemented by self representations that reflect on their cultural foundations Ethnologica , 1978 The Columbia History of Eastern Europe in the Twentieth Century Joseph Held, 1992 This illustrated historical reference work provides an interpretive overview of each of the countries of Eastern Europe focusing particularly on political developments and including references to significant social cultural and economic events Byzantium after Byzantium

Virgil Căndea, Nicolae Iorga, 2023-01-24 Although Constantinople fell to the Turks in 1453 bringing an end to the Eastern Roman Empire which had survived its predecessor in the West by nearly one thousand years this important book argues that Byzantium did not die but continued to influence European history all the way up to the beginning of the nineteenth century The author's formula Byzantium after Byzantium defines several centuries of world history Iorga points out the great contributions of Byzantine civilization to the Western world especially during the Renaissance He demonstrates that Byzantium survived through its people and local autonomies as well as through its exiles They continued the Byzantine ideas aspirations education and way of life All of this allows us to speak of a Byzantium after Byzantium Nationalizing the Past S. Berger, C. Lorenz, 2016-01-19 Historians traditionally claim to be myth breakers but national history since the nineteenth century shows quite a record in myth making This exciting new volume compares how national historians in Europe have handled the opposing pulls of fact and fiction and shows which narrative strategies have contributed to the success of national histories Oeuvres inédites de Nicolas Mănescu Nicolae Mănescu, Nicolae Iorga, 1929 Hungarian Studies ,1996 Romanian Scientific Abstracts ,1980 Entangled Histories of the Balkans - Volume Three Roumen Daskalov, Alexander Vezencov, 2015-03-10 Modern Balkan history has traditionally been studied by national historians in terms of separate national histories taking place within bounded state territories The authors in this volume take a different approach They view the modern history of the region from a transnational and relational perspective in terms of shared and connected as well as entangled histories This regards the treatment of shared historical legacies by rival national historiographies The volume deals with historiographical disputes that arose in the process of nationalizing the past Contributors include Diana Mishkova Alexander Vezencov Roumen Daskalov Tchavdar Marinov and Bernard Lory

Rumanian Studies An International Annual Of The Humanities and Social Sciences Volume 1 1970 , General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1965 Ghosts in the Middle Ages Jean-Claude Schmitt, 1998 Using many different medieval texts Schmitt examines medieval religious culture and the significance of the widespread belief in ghosts asking who returned to whom from where in what form and why Through this vivid study we can see the ways in which the dead and the living related to each other Schmitt focuses on everyday ghosts recently departed ordinary people who were a part of the complex social world of the living Schmitt argues that beliefs and the imaginary depend above all on the structures and functioning of society and culture and he shows how the Christian culture of the Middle Ages enlarged the notion of ghosts and created many opportunities for the dead to appear Schmitt also points out that the church happily proliferated ghost stories as a way to promote the liturgy of the dead to develop pious sentiments among parishioners and to solicit alms on behalf of a relative or friend s salvation Beyond Balkanism Diana Mishkova, 2018-07-17 In recent years western discourse about the Balkans or balkanism has risen in prominence Characteristically this strand of research sidelines the academic input in the production of western representations and Balkan self understanding Looking at the Balkans from the vantage point of balkanism has therefore contributed to its further marginalization as an object of research and the evisceration of its agency This book reverses the perspective and looks at the Balkans primarily inside out from within the Balkans towards its self and the outside world where the west is important but not the sole referent The book unravels attempts at regional identity building and construction of regional discourses across various generations and academic subcultures with the aim of reconstructing the conceptualizations of the Balkans that have emerged from academically embedded discursive practices and political usages It thus seeks to reinstate the subjectivity of the Balkans and the responsibility of the Balkan intellectual elites for the concept and the images it conveys The book then looks beyond the Balkans inviting us to rethink the relationship between national and transnational self representation and the communication between local and exogenous Western Central and Eastern European concepts and definitions more generally It thus contributes to the ongoing debates related to the creation of space and historical Enlightenment, Nationalism, Orthodoxy Paschalis M. Kitromilides, 2024-10-28 The first section of this volume aims to examine various aspects of the impact of Enlightenment thought in the Balkans in the 18th and 19th centuries Particular topics include the idea of modernization with respect to the role of science or the position of women and the growth of new forms of political consciousness but Professor Kitromilides is throughout concerned with the conflict between these incoming political cultural and religious ideas and the traditions of Orthodoxy which had dominated the region under the Ottomans Of the articles a number focus specifically on the Greek world both before and after the creation of an independent Greek world and extend the coverage to include Greek communities beyond Europe Similarly the second part of the volume on dilemmas of nationalism looks also at Greek irredentism in Asia Minor and Cyprus The final item combines bibliographical additions with the author's further reflections on the subjects covered here and their historiography A Register of National
