from Graduation to Work Subas Dhakal,Verma Prikshat,Alan Nankervis,John Burgess,2018-08-26 This book reports on the findings from a research study of vocational and higher education graduates employability challenges The nature and extent of these challenges their underlying causes and effective strategies to address the problems in this area are all analysed from a multiple stakeholder paradigm The primary focus of the book is on governments secondary vocational and higher education systems and industry employers rather than graduates themselves in order to highlight the policy and strategy implications for governments industry and educational systems Readers will acquire comprehensive information on the nature and extent of graduate employability in terms of country specific challenges together with a deeper understanding of their complex causes and the inter relatedness between governments educational systems industry sectors and potential employers They will also be provided with a broad range of stakeholder strategies designed to effectively address these challenges within integrated national and regional approaches

Differentiation and Articulation in Tertiary Education Systems

Njuguna Ng'ethe, George Subotzky, George Afeti, 2008-01-01 This title explores an area of tertiary education that is currently understudied this is the extent and nature of differentiation and articulation in African tertiary education systems The overall finding is that the binary system is dominant characterised by universities and polytechnics as distinct types of institutions Differentiation is clearly evident in Africa However though varied in nature and extent the differentiation is mostly horizontal as opposed to vertical Articulation on the other hand seems to be in its infancy as some universities in their admission requirements d
