The program includes Nationally recognized professional development from an organization that has been immersed in the new standards since their inception, Blended learning experiences for teachers and leaders that enrich and extend the learning, A train the trainer program that builds capacity and provides resources and individual support for embedded leaders and coaches. Paths offers schools and districts a unique approach to ensuring college and career readiness for all students, providing state-of-the-art curriculum and state-of-the-art implementation.

Challenges in Language Testing Around the World Betty Lanteigne, Christine Coombe, James Dean Brown, 2021-02-17 This book combines insights from language assessment, literacy, and critical language testing through critical analyses and research about challenges in language assessment around the world. It investigates problematic practices in language testing which are relevant to language test users such as language program directors, testing centers, and language teachers, as well as teachers in training in Graduate Diploma and Master of Arts in Applied Linguistics programs. These issues involve aspects of language testing such as test development, test administration, scoring, and interpretation, use of test results. Chapters in this volume discuss insights about language testing policy, testing world languages, developing program-level language tests, and tests of specific language skills and language assessment literacy. In addition, this book identifies two needs in language testing for further examination: the need for collaboration between language test developers, language test users, and language users, and the need to base language tests on real-world language use.

in Grades 2-8 Teaching Writing as Journey, Not Destination P. L. Thomas, 2019-01-01 American author Kurt Vonnegut has famously declared that writing is unteachable yet formal education persists in that task Teaching Writing as Journey Not Destination is the culmination of P. L. Thomas's experiences as both a writer and a teacher of writing reaching into the fourth decade of struggling with both. This volume collects essays that examine the enduring and contemporary questions facing writing teachers including grammar instruction, authentic practices in high stakes environments, student choice, citation and plagiarism, the five paragraph essay, grading and the intersections of being a writer and teaching writing. Thomas offers concrete classroom experiences drawn from teaching high school ELA, first year composition and a wide range of undergraduate and graduate courses. Ultimately, however, the essays are a reflection of Thomas's journey and a concession to both writing and teaching writing as journeys without ultimate destinations.
