Father of All Louise Pubols, 2010-01-04 This deeply researched engagingly presented and immensely valuable book demolishes longstanding myths about Mexican California as a colorful custom bound world apart In place of this fantasy past Louise Pubols offers a history of the de la Guerras that reveals a family and a society caught up in yet not wholly overcome by the global economic and political developments of the first half of the nineteenth century Stephen Aron Professor of History at the University of California Los Angeles and Executive Director of the Institute for the Study of the American West at the Autry National Center The Father of All combines first rate historical analysis with in depth archival research Don Jos de la Guerra and his extended family are fascinating historical personages and their encounters with other Californio elites provide a compelling story but Pubols takes us to a higher level of understanding by demonstrating the crucial role of extended family ties in the economic and political history of California during the Mexican Period Pubols provides a convincing argument that family ties kept the prevalent political unrest from breaking out into more violent civil conflict Dr Jarrell C Jackman Executive Director Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation Norton's Literary Advertiser ,1853 Norton's Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular ,1851 Correction and Prevention ...
