Rubric Nation Michelle Tenam-Zemach,Joseph E. Flynn,2015-04-01 What is a rubric and how are they being used in teacher education and evaluation When did rubrics become ubiquitous in the field of education What impact do rubrics have on students teachers teacher educators and the educational enterprise This book is an edited volume of essays that critically examine the phenomenon of rubrics in teacher education evaluation and education more broadly Rubrics have seen a dramatic rise in use and presence over the past twenty five years in colleges of education and districts across the country Although there is a wealth of literature about how to make rubrics there is scant literature that explores the strengths and weaknesses of rubrics and the impact the rubric phenomenon is having in reshaping education The chapters included in this edited volume will critically reflect on the contemporary contexts of rubrics and the uses and impact of rubrics in education Since rubrics have become indelible in education it is necessary for a fuller nuanced discussion of the phenomenon Creating a book that explores these aspects of rubrics is timely and fundamental to expanding the discourse on this ubiquitous evaluation tool This book is not meant to be a series of chapters dedicated to best practices for creating rubrics nor is this text meant to present all sides of the rubric discussion Rather this text intends to offer critical polemics about rubrics that can spur greater critical discussion about a phenomenon in education that has largely been unquestioned in the literature

Testing and Assessment in Translation and Interpreting Studies Claudia V. Angelelli,Holly E. Jacobson,2009 Testing and Assessment in Translation and Interpreting Studies examines issues of measurement that are essential to translation and interpreting. Conceptualizing testing both as a process and a product, the collection of papers explores these issues across languages and settings including university classrooms, research projects, the private sector, and professional associations. The authors have approached their chapters from different perspectives using a variety of methods, some focusing on very specific variables and others providing a much broader overview of the issues at hand. Chapters range from a discussion of the measurement of text cohesion in translation, the measurement of interactional competence in interpreting, the use of a particular scale to measure interpreters' renditions, to the application of a specific approach to grading or general program assessment, such as interpreter or translator certification at the national level or program admissions processes. These studies point to the need for greater integration of research and practice in the specific area of testing and assessment and are a welcome addition to the field.
