Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976 Minos and the Moderns Theodore Ziolkowski, 2008-07-17 Minos and the Moderns considers three mythological complexes that enjoyed a unique surge of interest in early twentieth century European art and literature Europa and the bull the minotaur and the labyrinth and Daedalus and Icarus All three are situated on the island of Crete and are linked by the figure of King Minos Drawing examples from fiction poetry drama painting sculpture opera and ballet Minos and the Moderns is the first book of its kind to treat the role of the Cretan myths in the modern imagination Beginning with the resurgence of Crete in the modern consciousness in 1900 following the excavations of Sir Arthur Evans Theodore Ziolkowski shows how the tale of Europa in poetry drama and art but also in cartoons advertising and currency was initially seized upon as a story of sexual awakening then as a vehicle for social and political satire and finally as a symbol of European unity In contrast the minotaur provided artists ranging from Picasso to Drennatt with an image of the artist's sense of alienation while the labyrinth suggested to many writers the threatening sociopolitical world of the twentieth century Ziolkowski also considers the roles of such modern figures as Marx Nietzsche and Freud of travelers to Greece and Crete from Isadora Duncan to Henry Miller and of the theorists and writers including T S Eliot and Thomas Mann who hailed the use of myth in modern literature Minos and the Moderns concludes with a summary of the manners in which the economic aesthetic psychological and anthropological revisions enabled precisely these myths to be taken up as a mirror of modern consciousness The book will appeal to all readers interested in the classical tradition and its continuing relevance and especially to scholars of Classics and modern literatures

Bestsellers of the Third Reich Christian Adam, 2021-04-01 Despite the displacement of countless authors frequent bans of specific titles and high profile book burnings the German book industry boomed during the Nazi period Notwithstanding the millions of copies of Mein Kampf that were sold the era's most popular books were diverse and often surprising in retrospect despite an oppressive ideological and cultural climate Huxley's Brave New World was widely read in the 1930s while Saint Exupéry's Wind Sand and Stars was a great success during the war years Bestsellers of the Third Reich surveys this motley collection of books along with the circumstances of their publication to provide an innovative new window into the history of Nazi Germany
