British and World Literature for Life and Work Elaine Johnson, Larocco, Steve Johnson, 1996

Life and Loss Linda Goldman, 2013-11-20 Many clinicians recognize that denying or ignoring grief issues in children leaves them feeling alone and that acknowledging loss is crucial part of a child's healthy development Really dealing with loss in productive ways however is sometimes easier said than done For decades Life and Loss has been the book clinicians have relied on for a full and nuanced presentation of the many issues with which grieving children grapple as well as an honest exploration of the interrelationship between unresolved grief educational success and responsible citizenry The third edition of Life and Loss brings this exploration firmly into the twenty first century and makes a convincing case that children's grief is no longer restricted only to loss identified children Children's grief is now endemic it is global Life and Loss is not just the book clinicians need to understand grief in the twenty first century it's the book they need to work with it in constructive ways

STEM Programming for All Ages Chantale Pard, 2018-08-15 STEM You've probably heard of it by now Science Technology Engineering and Math STEM programming took the library world by storm in 2013 and is still going strong today Don't let this trendy programming theme fool you though STEM skills are more than just a fad they are essential With the constant evolution in both our communities and in technology libraries will need to make sure they stay STEM literate in the face of these changes so they can help their communities thrive This book will show new and exciting examples of how libraries are implementing STEM education You'll also learn how to start or improve your own STEM programming with little or no budget even if you're not a scientist or mathematician Special features include STEAM programs What's in the A Are libraries doing this already Real examples of current and successful STEM programs created by librarians Clear concise instructions for incorporating STEM skills into your regular series one off or outreach programming for all budget ranges and age groups Breaking down barriers providing STEM programs for underserved populations such as newcomers and young girls Engaging your community to make the most out of possible STEM based partnerships and resources Pop culture program samples learn how pop culture STEM programs aim to include more than just your self proclaimed budding scientists in their appeal and ideally inspire a wider range of children to imagine what their own STEM skilled futures might look like This magical mix of exciting trendy and educational programs will have a wide range of kids saying Mom you have to take me to the library
