World's countries and their growth and economic status are shown by their size on this map, except for the tiny island nations. The size of countries is shown by a number written in small letters at the bottom of each country's name. The size of the country's name is written in small letters at the bottom of each country's name.

The hierarchical modeling methods are (1) clustering, (2) hierarchical, (3) growing, (4) monitoring, (5) collapse, and (6) compressed. Clusters and models are specified in the modeling graph with the quality or degree of their similarity to the environment.
