

Professional Reflection/Development Plan
(complete 1, 2 and 3 – this is a 3-part writing exercise)

1. Professional Reflection (Must complete this section)

1. Reflective Essay:

All graduate studies at Viterbo University are based on essential knowledge, established and current research, and best professional practice. As a professional educator, the necessity to reflectively apply knowledge of subject matter, human learning and development, pedagogy, theory and technology is tantamount to professional development.

In this exercise, revisit the Philosophy of Education you wrote as an undergraduate. Reflect on your current beliefs and practices and note any changes in philosophy that have developed. Reflect on the reasons for these changes using examples if appropriate. Culminate by drafting a revised Philosophy of Education. Please limit this section to two typed pages.

2. Professional Development Plan: (Must complete this section)

Outline your plan for professional development. Describe areas of interest and expertise, past experience, long-range and short-term professional goals, planned course study, intended graduation date, etc. Please limit this section to 1-2 typed pages.

3. Professional Application of Teaching Standards: (Must complete this section)

NCATE (National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education), to which Viterbo University is accredited, believes that caring, competent, and qualified teachers should teach every pupil. Student learning must mean not only basic skills but also the knowledge and skills necessary to succeed as a responsible citizen and contributor to the new economy. Therefore, standards have been established based on the belief that all children can and should learn.

In this exercise we ask that you provide evidence of your knowledge, skills, and attitudes in five areas (next page). Share one example from your own teaching experience for each of the five standards listed below. Please limit your responses to 1-2 typed pages total.

Standard 1: Development, Learning, and Motivation

Professional Development Paper

Catherine Miles Grant

Professional Development Paper:

Professional Development for School Improvement Stephen P. Gordon, 2004 This book integrates knowledge from professional development and school improvement to describe frameworks that can increase the capacity of individuals teams and organizations to grow and develop The text argues that both professional development and school improvement should have as their primary purpose the improvement of teaching and learning Eleven frameworks for professional development are presented along with strategies for integrating multiple frameworks in comprehensive programs School leader development is addressed as a prerequisite for professional and school development Handbook of Research on Transforming Mathematics Teacher Education in the Digital Age Niess, Margaret, Driskell, Shannon, Hollebrands, Karen, 2016-04-22 The digital age provides ample opportunities for enhanced learning experiences for students however it can also present challenges for educators who must adapt to and implement new technologies in the classroom The Handbook of Research on Transforming Mathematics Teacher Education in the Digital Age is a critical reference source featuring the latest research on the development of educators knowledge for the integration of technologies to improve classroom instruction Investigating emerging pedagogies for preservice and in service teachers this publication is ideal for professionals researchers and educational designers interested in the implementation of technology in the mathematics classroom , Brookings Papers on Education Policy: 2000 Diane Ravitch, 2010-12-01 In this third annual issue of the series prominent economists educators and other social scientists analyze the importance of standards in education and review some of the major controversies that have arisen in the past decade on the problems of shaping and implementing standards Edited by Diane Ravitch one of the nation s foremost education authorities Brookings Papers on Education Policy is an indispensable guide to understanding education trends and emerging issues The year 2000 issue is scheduled to include essays by Gary Chapman of the University of Texas George Farkas and L Shane Hall of the University of Texas at Dallas Paul Hill of the University of Washington Christine Rossell of Boston University Robert Schwartz and Marian Robinson of ACHIEVE and Harvard Graduate School of Education Larry Sherman of the University of Maryland and Maris Vinovskis of the University of Michigan Resources in Education , 2001-04 Social Work in East Asia Christian Aspalter, 2016-04-01 Owing to rapid economic development and the onset of population ageing social work has become a major means of delivering social services and relieving and preventing social problems at an individual family and community level in East Asia In addition to this the number of activities undertaken by social welfare NGOs has risen a great deal throughout East Asia resulting in a greater demand for professional social workers With governments across the region having discovered the beneficial effects of professional social work for both social integration and social harmony there is now greater support for the development of this academic discipline and profession This groundbreaking volume explores the current state of development of social work provision across the region It is the first book of its kind to investigate current and future trends as well as the challenges and pitfalls of social work one of the fastest growing professions in East Asia Secondary Lenses on Learning Participant Book Catherine Miles Grant,2009-08-11 This participant book in combination with the facilitator s guide forms a comprehensive professional development program designed to improve the efforts of site based mathematics leadership teams for middle and high schools Secondary Lenses on Learning prepares leaders to explore concepts in middle and high school algebra as a window into content instruction and assessment You will learn how to assess the strengths and needs of your mathematics programs set goals and generate plans for ongoing improvement by engaging in extended explorations and conversations based on readings problem based activities cases and videos Developing Teachers Chris Day,2002-01-04 Effective schools or improving schools are fashionable terms in the rhetoric of recent education movements yet the heart of these movements is often more to do with teaching quality than with school practice This book takes a holistic view of teacher development examining the contexts and conditions of teaching school leadership and culture teachers lives and histories change teacher learning competence and expertise and the moral purposes of teaching Day looks at the conditions under which teacher development may be enhanced and brings together research and other information from the UK and overseas Teachers' Professional Lives Ivor F. Goodson,2002-11 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company International Handbook of Teachers and Teaching Bruce J. Biddle,T.L. Good,I. Goodson,2013-11-11 Recent years have generated a huge increase in the number of research and scholarly works concerned with teachers and teaching and this effort has generated new and important insights that are crucial for understanding education today This handbook provides a host of chapters written by leading authorities that review both the major traditions of work and the newest perspectives concepts insights and research based knowledge concerned with teachers and teaching Many of the chapters discuss developments that are international in scope but coverage is also provided for education in a number of specific countries Many chapters also review contemporary problems faced by educators and the dangers posed by recent politically inspired attempts to reform schools and school systems The Handbook provides an invaluable resource for scholars teacher educators graduate students and all thoughtful persons concerned with the best thinking about teachers and teaching current problems and the future of education Towards Learning and Instruction in Web 3.0 Pedro Isaias,Dirk Ifenthaler,Kinshuk,Demetrios G. Sampson,J. Michael Spector,2011-12-15 Towards Learning and instruction in Web 3 0 which includes selected expanded papers from CELDA Cognition and Exploratory Learning in the Digital Age 2010 <http://www.celda.conf.org> addresses the main issues concerned with evolving learning processes innovative pedagogies and technology based educational applications in the digital age The convergence of these two disciplines continues to increase and in turn affects the academic and professional spheres in numerous ways Towards Learning and Instruction in Web 3 0 addresses paradigms such as just in time learning constructivism student centered learning and collaborative approaches which have emerged and are being supported by technological advancements such as simulations virtual reality and multi agents systems This volume touches on both technological as well as psychological and pedagogical issues related to the developments of Web 3.0 The Musical Experience Janet R. Barrett, Peter R.

Webster, 2014-07-15 The Musical Experience proposes a new concept musical experience as the most effective framework for navigating the shifting terrain of educational policy as it is applied to music education The editors and contributors define musical experience as being characterized by the depth of affective and emotional responses that music generates The chapters map out the primary forms of musical engagement performing listening improvising and composing as activities which play a key role in classroom teaching They also address the cultural scope of musical experience which calls for the consideration of time place beliefs and values to be placed upon musical activities The Musical Experience discusses how music teachers can most effectively rely on means of musical communication to lead students toward the development and refinement of musical skills understandings and expression in educational settings This book serves to expand upon the dimensions of musical experience and provides from the forefront of the field an integrated yet panoramic view of the educational processes involved in music teaching and learning Second International Handbook of Mathematics Education Alan Bishop, M.A. (Ken) Clements, Christine Keitel-Kreidt, Jeremy Kilpatrick, Frederick Koon-Shing Leung, 2012-02-02 ALAN 1 BISHOP The first International Handbook on Mathematics Education was published by Kluwer Academic Publishers in 1996 However most of the writing for that handbook was done in 1995 and generally reflected the main research and development foci prior to 1994 There were four sections 36 chapters and some 150 people contributed to the final volume either as author reviewer editor or critical friend The task was a monumental one attempting to cover the major research and practice developments in the international field of mathematics education as it appeared to the contributors in 1995 Inevitably there were certain omissions some developments were only starting to emerge and some literatures were only sketchy and speculative However that Handbook has had to be reprinted three times so it clearly fulfilled a need and I personally hope that it lived up to what I wrote in its Introduction The Handbook thus attempts not merely to present a description of the international state of the field but also to offer synthetic and reflective overviews on the different directions being taken by the field on the gaps existing in our present knowledge on the current problems being faced and on the future possibilities for development Bishop et al 1996 Since that time there has been even more activity in our field and now seems a good time to take stock again to reflect on what has happened since 1995 and to create a second Handbook with the same overall goals

Academic Work and Identities in Teacher Education Jean Murray, Clare Kosnik, 2016-04-08 With its focus on the work and identity of teacher educators this book addresses an essential but under researched area in teacher education It makes a major contribution to analysing the field and develops existing research on the working lives and identities of teacher educators The book explores ideas about the future of teacher education and the implications for policy changes in education systems across the world It brings together studies from across the globe on how teacher educators within higher education institutions function as both academics and professionals in different institutions and nations It also considers professional learning for teacher educators as an occupational group and makes practical suggestions for change and improvement in this often neglected area of higher education The book deliberately draws on research from a range of traditions including life history policy analysis ethnography and self study The contributions come from major researchers in teacher education in Australia Continental Europe the USA and Canada the UK and Asia This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Education for Teaching
